

Wesleyan's "Benefactor of the year"
President SILAS JOHNSON

THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE

Vol. XXVI
No. 4

NOVEMBER,
1950

THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE

NOVEMBER, FEBRUARY, MAY, AUGUST

Subscription Price, $1.00 per year

Entered as second-class matter February 12, 1925 at the Post Office at Macon, Georgia under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Volume XVI

Member American Alumni Council

Number 4

Bequest Column

Robert Otis Jones

Loula (Evans) Jones

Mary B. Merritt

Edward Trippe Comer

George Collier Comer

Laura Ellen (Butts) Hinkle

Sarah H. Bradley

William C. Bradley

The Classes of:

1948

1949

1950

1951

1952

James Hyde Porter

Elsie Gibson Hart

Elsie Hart Jones

T. E. Huggins

Charles Merrill

Joe M. Cox

Elizabeth (Studstill) Nelson

The Column in this issue in memory of

Ella (Parker) Leonard

Bequest For Scholarships

In memory of her mother, Julia (Mathews) Parker, A.B. 1864, Ella (Parker) Leonard, A.B. 1890, bequeathed to Wesleyan the sum of $2,000 to be used for scholarships for worthy girls.

Frances Shumate, A.B. 1944, niece of Ella (Parker) Leonard says of her:

"Today too many women are marking time as teachers, not realizing the importance of training young minds in the classroom. Auntie was first of all a teacher. She loved children, and loved to stir them to new thoughts. She gave extra encouragement to outstanding boys and girls, and oh, how she loved to put a good book into the hands of a young person!

"She taught in Talbotton, in Brenau College in Gainesville, and for 23 years in the Atlanta public schools. She was among those chosen to organize the Murphey Junior High School, now a high school.

Ella (Parker) Leonard

"She spent many summers studying herself, at the University of Tennessee, at Columbia, at Oglethorpe, and at Chatauqua, N. Y.

"When she retired from teaching she enjoyed having time to meet with her Wesleyan Alumnae Group. For a time she was the only one of her group who dared to venture down town in Atlanta's traffic, and she would fill her car with group members and take them to the meeting place. When she could no longer take then, because of arthritis, she would call them over the phone for a chat.

"I am glad Auntie gave the scholarship fund to Wesleyan. I hope that because of it some other girls will enjoy their years there as much as I did mine."

THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE

Dr. Johnson Named "Benefactor of 1950"

On Benefactors' Day, October 13, the students, faculty and staff of Wesleyan honored their president, Dr. Silas Johnson, naming him Benefactor of 1950 in a surprise program in chapel.

Students and faculty of both campuses met on the Rivoli campus, and after hearing the Rev. Henry H. Waller, newly elected trustee and district superintendent of the Tampa district of the Florida conference, presented Dr. Johnson with a citation which read:

"In recognition of distinguished service to Wesleyan College and in affectionate esteem the students, faculty and staff honor their president, Dr. Silas Johnson, through whose inspiration and toil Wesleyan College paid in full her moral obligation on legally retired bonds. By his integrity and his zealous espousal of the right, he has set for us, his co-workers, a living example which we hereby gratefully acknowledge."

The citation was signed by Dean Samuel L. Akers of the liberal arts faculty, Dean Doris O. Jelks of the conservatory faculty, Daisy Weathers, president of College Government on the Rivoli campus, and Diana Roberts, president of Student Government on the conservatory campus.

New Students in 1950-51

Fourth Generation Students

Student	Whose great grandmother was
Mary Blair.....	*Joanna (Shropshire) Barron, 1849
Betty Hammond.....	*Eliza (Merritt) Hammond, 1849
Helen Sharpe.....	*Mary (Lovett) Sharpe, 1861

Third Generation Students

Student	Whose grandmother was (or is)
Florence Coleman.....	Annie (Hyer) Coleman, 1886
Hazel Garrett (Cons.).....	Sara (Turner) Houser, 1896
Jo Allene Kent.....	Ellsberry (Dana) Kent, 1899
Lundie Lenoir (Cons.).....	*Clyde (Lyndon) Lenoir, 1894
Eleanor Ogburn.....	*Bertha (Pate) Royal, 1902
Jone Perryman.....	*Kate (Leonard) Spivey 1882
Nell Warren.....	Eloise (Greer) Rice, 1916

Second Generation Students

Student	Whose mother was (or is)
Billie Daniel (Cons.).....	Emily (Applewhite) Daniel, Cons. 1930
Ruth Forehand.....	Ruth (Rucker) Forehand, 1913
Teresa Garoni.....	Frances (Canipelli) Garoni, Cons. 1926
Hazel Garrett (Cons.).....	Ruth (Houser) Garrett, 1918
Elizabeth Gaunt.....	Lois (Burgay) Gaunt, Music 1921
Anne Harrell.....	Louise (Pickett) Harrell, 1922
Betty Henderson.....	Blossom (Malone) Henderson, 1933
Helen Long (Cons.).....	Helen (Granade) Long, Cons. 1929
Mary Lowrey.....	Louise (Stubbs) Lowrey, 1925
Marcia Mallet.....	Mary (Lane) Mallet, 1917
Jean Malone.....	Marie (Boyette) Malone, 1924
Mary Newman (Cons.).....	Edna (Watkins) Sowers, 1911
Eleanor Ogburn.....	Eleanor (Royal) Ogburn, 1928
Helen Sharpe.....	Helen (Chance) Sharpe, 1910
Sara Smith.....	Marie (Patten) Smith, 1925
Neal Thornton.....	Cornelia (Turner) Thornton, 1930
Ritchey Yost.....	Ruth (Kasey) Yost, 1928

"Their Sisters and Their Cousins and Their Aunts"

Student	Whose aunt is (or was)
Doris Birchler.....	Ethel (Dobbs) Cameron, 1913
Mary Blair.....	Sallie (Barron) Ellis, 1888 (great aunt)
	*Mary Jo Barron, 1905
	Anna Barron (Ellis) Whitman, -923

(Over)

Changes in Faculty and Staff

The faculty change which will come as a surprise to the greatest number of alumnae this year will be that of the head of the department of mathematics. During the summer Dr. Claude W. Bruce, who has served for 23 years on the Wesleyan faculty, first as instructor in physics and astronomy and finally as head of the mathematics department, resigned to accept a position at Tennessee Polytechnic Institute in Cookeville, Tenn. He did not make his decision final until he was assured that Wesleyan could secure in his place Miss Virginia Carlton, who served on the faculty with Dr. Bruce in the mathematics department from 1941 to 1946, when she left to go to Centenary College. Recently she has been working on her Ph.D. degree at the University of Chicago. She holds the B.S. degree, summa cum laude, from Centenary and the M.A. from Tulane.

James C. Knepton, Jr., comes to Wesleyan as instructor in biology. Mr. Knepton is the son of Elizabeth (Darling) Knepton, 1919, and comes from the biology department of the University of Florida. He is married and has a small son and a daughter born October 21.

Mrs. Dorothy C. Hales, assistant professor in modern languages, comes to Wesleyan from the University of Tennessee where her husband was professor of economics before his death in 1949. She has the B.S. and the M.A. degrees from Johns Hopkins University. She is the mother of a son nine and a daughter six, and has bought a home in Macon.

Sarah M. Ivey, professor of speech correction, is a Wesleyan Conservatory alumna and has the A.B. from Duke, the M.A. from Louisiana State University, and has done work toward the Ph.D. at L.S.U. She was on the Wesleyan faculty from 1943 to 1946. Mrs. Margaret Anderson Sharp, formerly associate professor of speech, resigned in the summer to be married to Harry Lamon, brother of Sara Lamon, A.B. '29, and of Martha (Lamon) Spangler, A.B. '34.

Dr. Harvard F. Vallance comes to Wesleyan as lecturer in education. He has the B.S. from Ohio Northern University, the A.B. from Ohio State, the Ph.D. from Ohio State. He was formerly on the faculty of Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. Dr. Vallance does not replace a former member of the faculty, but comes to Wesleyan to help develop a program of education for prospective teachers. His wife is an addition to the Wesleyan family.

Eunice Ann Munck, A.B. Wesleyan 1938, M.A. Emory University, comes to be assistant professor of English and history, having taught for a number of years in the high school in Winter Haven, Fla. Her mother is with her, and she has a brother living in Macon on the staff of The Macon Telegraph.

Margaret McKinnon, B.M. Wesleyan Conservatory, 1939, comes to be part time instructor in piano in place of Mrs. Ann Moore Boyd who resigned when her husband's work took him to Atlanta. Margaret has studied at the Juilliard School of Music since leaving Wesleyan.

Bruce Flanders is instructor in biology and bacteriology, succeeding Oscar William Shapiro, who resigned to begin the study of medicine. Bruce is the daughter of Bruce (Cleckler) Flanders, A.B. '22, and of Ed Flanders, who studied voice at Wesleyan Conservatory under Edgar Howerton. She holds the B.S. and M.S. degrees from Florida State University with Phi Beta Kappa honors.

W. Leonard Norman, B.M. Northwestern University, former student at the American Conservatory of Music, comes as instructor in voice in place of Rae (Stubbs) Ingley, Conservatory '38 who was granted a year's leave of absence this year. (Rae and her husband, Howard Ingley, Jr., both of the Wesleyan music faculty, announce the birth of a son, Denis Howard, on October 22.)

Clara Bailey, A.B. Mercer University, cum laude, is instructor in chemistry, succeeding Jane Hogan who resigned to be married to Francis Marion Stewart III in the fall.

Leon Culpepper is part time instructor in music education. He has the A.B. from the University of Georgia and the M.A. from Peabody College.

Henrietta Collings, Wesleyan alumna of the class of '22, has the A.B. from the University of Georgia and the M.A. from Peabody College. She and Mr. Culpepper, both of whom are teachers of music in the Macon public schools, are together taking over the work of Howard Arthur Losson of the conservatory faculty who died September 15 following a long illness.

Mrs. Marguerite Hall, wife of Mr. Sherwood Hall of the music faculty, is part time instructor in piano. She holds the B.M. and the M.Mus. from Northwestern University. Evelyn Smith, B.M. '48 of the music faculty, has a year's leave of ab-

Varese Chambliss.....	Freida (Hayes) Strickland, Cons. 1947
Florence Coleman.....	Agnes Coleman, 1913
Ann Douglas.....	Norma Claire (Parker) Manley, 1926
Emily Evans.....	Louise (Evans) Jones, 1919
Ruth Forehand.....	Blanche (Rucker) Maddox, 1910
Betty Henderson.....	Elizabeth (Malone) Palmer, 1931
Mary Leigh Hendee (Cons.).....	Anne (Malone) Ballard, 1935
LaMyra Highsmith.....	Mary (Bowden) Addy, 1891
Jeannine Hinson.....	Sarah (Bowden) Allgood, 1895
Jack Hooton (Cons.—male student).....	Agnes (Highsmith) Ware, 1933
Gwendolyn Jackson.....	Walton (Hinson) Courson, Cons. 1930
Jo Allene Kent.....	Maude (Hooton) Owens, 1919
Lundie Lenoir (Cons.).....	Ruth (Beeland) Jackson, 1915
Mary Lowrey.....	Lillian (Budd) Jackson, 1924
Jean Malone.....	Alice (Kent) Hodges, 1925
Eleanor Ogburn.....	Ellsberry (Kent) Walker, 1939
Jone Perryman.....	June (Lyndon) Bocoock, 1905 (great aunt)
Mana Sanchez.....	Virginia (Stubbs) Leps, 1927
Edward Spencer Whitehead (Cons.—male student).....	Ann (Boyette) Bostwick, 1923
Student	*Susan (Malone) Persons, 1862 (great aunt)
Emily Evans.....	Katheryn (Royal) Wootton, 1928
Elizabeth Foster.....	Marjorie Royal, 1930
Martha Jean Laslie.....	Dorothy (Royal) Gower, 1935
	Ella (Pate) Carson, 1894 (great aunt)
	Nancy Pate, 1893 (great aunt)
	Marie (Spivey) Taylor, 1910
	Martha Few, 1925
	*Ruth (Wilson) Carson, 1917
	Matthylde (Wilson) Clifton, 1925
	Whose sister is
	Jean (Evans) Weaver, 1919
	Virginia (Foster) Thurston, 1945
	Joan Laslie, junior class

NEW STUDENTS WHOSE MOTHERS OR GRANDMOTHERS ARE ALUMNAE

Front row, left to right: Neil Thornton, Terry Garoni, Florence Coleman, Mary Lowrey, Jo Allene Kent.

Second row. Mary Blair, Jone Perryman, Ruth Forehand (just back of Terry Garoni), Lundy Lenoir, Betty Hammond, Anne Harrell (in plaid dress).

Third row: Jean Malone, Helen Long, Mary Newman, Sara Smith.

Fourth row: Eleanor Ogburn, Betty Gaunt, Ritchie Yost.

Back row: Billy Daniel, Hazel Garrett, Anne Strozier, Marcia Mallet. (Betty Henderson, Nell Warren, and Helen Sharpe were not present for the picture. Anne Strozier is a Conservatory sophomore whose mother was Anne (Smith) Strozier, 1929. The others in the picture are listed in the printed list of daughters and granddaughters.)

Marcia Mallet.....	Jane Anne (Mallet) Settle, 1947
Ann Parsons.....	Emily Mallet, 1949
Jone Perryman.....	Margaret (Parsons) Andrews, 1947
Helen Sharpe.....	Katherine Perryman, 1948
	Mary (Sharpe) Robinson, 1939
	Charlotte Sharpe, 1945
Sara Deane Smith.....	Caronelle Smith, 1951
Neal Thornton.....	Mayson Thornton, sophomore class
Barbara Walker.....	Elizabeth (Walker) Bowers, 1948
Student	Whose cousin is
Ann Brockman (Cons.).....	Barbara Swindle, 1950
Jacquelyn Burton (Cons.).....	Margie (Burton) Dixon, 1948
Virginia Claire Carmichael.....	Lorraine (Williams) Garrett, 1930
Carole Coleman.....	Rebecca (Hall) Courson, 1937
Florence Coleman.....	Anne Smith, 1942
	Betty Smith, senior class
Reginald Ann Cox.....	Frances (Huckabee) Downs, 1928
Billie Daniel (Cons.).....	Mary (Cates) Griffin, Cons. 1929
	Pauline (Lester) Mundell, 1945
Emily Evans.....	Lucia (Evans) Rheinfrank, 1943
Ruth Forehand.....	Anne (Maddox) Ebright, 1937
Bonnie Jo Gardner.....	Joyce Roberts, 1951
Elaine Halley.....	Anne (Halley) Marshall, 1947
Georgia Florence Harper (Cons.).....	Ruby Maloy, 1942
Mary Leigh Hendee (Cons.).....	Sarah Dosie (Bowden) Dobbins, 1919
	Lucile (Bowden) Johnson, 1924
	Janet (Allcorn) Williams, 1944
Sally Higgins.....	LaRose (Day) Coar, Cons. 1946
Jeannine Hinson.....	Mary Ann (Causey) Mayfield, 1951
Jane Holleman.....	Rose Crockett, 1948
Martha Jean Laslie.....	Constance (Roberts) Laslie, 1945
Helen Long (Cons.).....	Winifred (Darsey) Richardson, Cons. 1930
Jean Malone.....	Mary (Malone) Rogers, 1945
Hilda Mattox.....	Sarah Veatch, 1944
Glenda Norton.....	Emily Norton, 1945
Eleanor Ogburn.....	Hortense (Royal) Raines, 1929
Emily Thomasson.....	Kathleen (Thomasson) Mayfield, 1948
Barbara Walker.....	Wylene (Dillard) Kendrick, 1945
Nell Warren.....	Sarah Davidson, 1950
Jane Wilson (Cons.).....	Judith (Van Buren) Bryan, Cons. 1941
	Nell Hardeman, 1947

*Deceased.

sence to study at Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N. Y.

Joyce Miller B.F.A. 1949, although she has been teaching since the resignation last spring of Mr. John Snyder Carlile of the radio department, has not been announced in the magazine as a member of the faculty. She has had experience in radio work in New York and in Atlanta before returning to Wesleyan.

Mrs. Azalea V. Estes is assistant to the dean of women on the Rivoli campus, taking the place of Judith Meridith, A.B. '49, who is at home in Orlando, Fla., this year. Mrs. Estes comes to Wesleyan from a similar position at Shorter College.

The business office has seen several changes during the past year. Last fall the death of Mrs. Duchess Williams Taylor, bookkeeper since 1943, brought sadness to the entire campus. Succeeding her is Mary Ellen Starling, who had held a clerical position in the business office. Emma Hicks worked in the business office for several months before accepting a position at Robins Field, and now in this position is Mrs. Ann Coleman of Macon. Mrs. Evelyn Nelson is in charge of the student bank and book store on the Rivoli campus, and Mary (Davis) Lee, conservatory alumna of the class of '51 on that campus.

Wesleyan Alumna Chosen for Scholarship

Julia Newton, A.B. 1924, teacher of biology in the Fulton County System's new Northside High School had the good fortune to be chosen as one of five women in the nation to participate in one of a series of Workshops at Columbia University on the Technology of basic industries and their social and economic implications.

During the past summer the Workshop was composed of 25 participants and was focused on electric power. For six weeks Julia and the other teachers selected went on field trips, had consultations with executives in industry and government and lectures by some of the outstanding business men in the electric field. Dean Hollis L. Caswell, Dr. S. R. Powers, and

Dr. E. M. Hunt, all of Columbia University, pointed up the educational implications of electric power.

Last year the scholarship visitors studied aviation, and next year the subject may be steel.

In an article in an Atlanta paper Doris Lockerman, Associate Editor, says, "Good teachers these days strive not only to answer the questions of their pupils, but to urge them to deeper probing and research as citizens. Miss Newton has returned with a vast knowledge of the effect of electric energy on the lives of people. Miss Newton is herself a polio patient who has risen far above any crippling aspects of the disease, obviously turning its physical scars into a challenge to greater accomplishment."

Julia Newton, A.B. '24

Anonymous Gift to Wesleyan

In August Dr. Silas Johnson received a letter from an anonymous alumna as follows:

"When I was a student at Wesleyan I was given financial aid during my junior year by the old Philomathean Society of which I was a member.

"For the past fifty years I have hoped that some day I might be able, through my own efforts, to help some deserving girl who was in need of a little financial aid.

"At long last I am sending you my check for $500 to be used in accordance with your own good judgment to help some girl of strong Christian character.

"Because of my lasting gratitude to my old Society, I ask that this money be a donation in memory of the Philomathean Society, and I do not want my name mentioned."

The Alumnae Are Breaking Into Print

Besides those alumnae who are writing books (and you will see a story about a new one in this issue) there are others whose articles have appeared recently in nationally known magazines.

Margaret Godley

In the August, 1950 issue of HOLLAND'S Margaret Godley of the class of 1934 had a delightful article called "Wormsloe," with the sub-title, "the loveliest bit of true South." It is the first article in the magazine, and on the first page is a beautiful picture of the historic old plantation home with the double stair in front, like Wesleyan's library on the Rivlio campus. There are six other illustrations with the article.

Margaret has held writing and editing jobs since leaving Wesleyan with the Wesleyan Christian Advocate, the Savannah Morning News and the Savannah Evening Press, has served as publicity chairman for the Georgia Historical Society for two years, and now has a job as reference and publicity assistant at the Savannah Public Library. She writes a column, "Can You Tell me . . . ?" for the Savannah Press each week and a column, "Speaking of Books" in a publication of the Savannah Transit Company each month. She also does ten radio "spot" announcements each month.

In the Wesleyan library are her two charming booklets, "Stories of Old Savannah," first and second series. She also did articles for The Macon Telegraph, for the Union Mission in Savannah, for one of the local Baptist churches of Savannah.

She wrote the booklet, "The Centennial Story of Trinity Church" recently.

Dorothy (Rogers) Tilly

In the June, 1950, issue of WORLD OUTLOOK Dorothy (Rogers) Tilly, 1903, has an article, "What I Saw in the State of Israel," the first-hand story of her trip as a representative of the United States Government to this new country. It is illustrated with two pictures of Jewish refugees to Israel, and is a gripping account of what has been done in this land.

An editorial foot-note about Dorothy (Rogers) Tilly speaks of her as "one of the outstanding women in Methodism." She was on the president's Committee on Civil Rights. Among her most recent honors is that of being made a Life Patron of the WSCS by the North Georgia Conference of this Society at their annual meeting. At the national meeting of the Phi Mu Fraternity at Green Lake, N. J., she was presented with the 1950 Certificate of Distinction in the Southern States in the field of social science.

Induk Pahk

Induk Pahk, of the class of 1928, has an article in GUIDEPOSTS for September, 1950, entitled "I Am a Convert to Democracy." GUIDEPOSTS is a non-profit, non-sectarian magazine of which Dr. Norman Vincent Peele is editor-in-chief.

The caption under the picture of Induk which accompanies the article says, "Asked by the Voice of America to broadcast to Asia, Korean-born Induk Pahk felt a sudden pang for her beloved daughter, Iris, now in Communist occupied Soeul. It might mean Iris' death warrant! Despite this, Mrs. Pahk, through the Voice, reaches her Korean people each week with messages of hope, faith, and inspiration."

The article tells in Induk's inimitable way of her childhood, her struggle for an education, her imprisonment in young womanhood as a revolutionist, her memorable trip to enter Ewha College in Korea, from whence she came to Wesleyan more than twenty years ago. This spring Induk wrote to Wesleyan to ask if she might begin to plan to get Iris to this country to enter Wesleyan as a student, and she and her college friends were planning to bring Iris as the first "second generation Korean student" at Wesleyan.

Betty Thompson

In the fall issue of THE QUARTERLY REVIEW by Duke University, Betty Thompson, '47, has an article on Thomas Wolf. Those who knew Betty as public relations director in 1948-49 will recall her interest in Wolf, and her research over a period of several years, the results of which are set forth in this article.

In the May 28, 1950 Atlanta Journal Magazine section, Betty had an article called "Heart Doctor Carves a Human Heart in Stone," about the sculpture hobby of an Emory University instructor.

Betty is working in the publicity department of the Methodist Board of Home Missions with offices in New York City.

Carolyn (Lawton) Harrell

Within recent years Carolyn (Lawton) Harrell, '33, has blossomed out as a writer almost overnight, and it is no surprise to pick up a magazine almost any day and see one of her articles. THE SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST for April, 1950 carried her story about Macon's Susan Myrick and her crusade for soil conservation.

Last October HOLLAND'S MAGAZINE carried Carolyn's article about the home of Betty (Dunwody) Sams, '44, a beautiful old home designed and built in 1829 by Jerry Cowles, one of Wesleyan's early trustees. The Kiwanis Magazine, Better Homes and Gardens, and The Georgia Review have also used articles by Carolyn.

She got her start with an article about summer activities at Wesleyan which appeared in The Macon Observer in October, 1948. This newspaper has since stopped publication, but during its brief life-time, Carolyn had a number of very fine articles in it.

(As the magazine goes to press we hear that Rebecca (Caudill) Ayars has an article in the July issue of THE CHRISTIAN HOME, and we know that THE ATLANTA JOURNAL often carries articles by Sara (Singleton) King, '18, and Nell (Bates) Penland, '20. Elsewhere in the magazine you will read about a story in a Savannah paper by Josephine (Jeffords) Herrin, '12. Lois (Davis) Davis, '35, has an article to be published soon in McCALL'S MAGAZINE. So we know that we are not half through telling you about the alumnae magazine-and-newspaper writers. "To be continued in our next . . .")

The New Loyalty Fund Year Began September 1

You received a report of the Loyalty Fund year that ended on August 31, with 731 alumnae and six Wesleyan clubs giving a total of $13,075.63 to their Alma Mater.

Already some contributions have come in for the new Loyalty Fund year. Already nearly 500 Wesleyan alumnae have agreed to help as "Class Fund Agents," which means that they will write notes this fall to ten of their classmates each!

Very soon now you will get one of these notes (unless you are one of the agents helping to send them!). Do not toss it aside. If you prefer to make your gift later—any time before next September 1—that will be all right. But put Wesleyan into your budget for worth-while causes, as you do your church and your community chest.

How Much Should You Give?

Your Loyalty Fund gift is a voluntary contribution in any amount you feel that you can give. Many alumnae give $1.00, and for many this is a real sacrifice. (It touches those who record the gifts that some of our older alumnae, living on meager pensions or on small checks which their children send each month, take the greatest joy in having a part in the financial program of their Alma Mater.) Many alumnae who can do so provide scholarships in varying amounts. (The largest single gift last year was $1,000; there were two $500 gifts.) The average alumnae gift has increased each year, and is today more than $16.00.

Was This Letter From You?

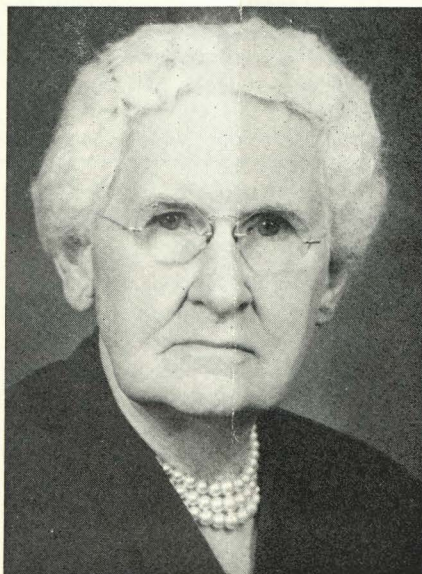

There came to the alumnae office this fall a letter which might have been sent by any one of hundreds of alumnae. It said:

"I haven't been to Wesleyan since I graduated! I've been very remiss about doing any part toward helping Wesleyan. Maybe that is why I have sort of lost touch. There have always been so many worthy obligations nearer by that I have mentally put Wesleyan off."

But (this is the happy ending to this story) her letter continued (accompanied by a very generous check): "The check I am enclosing is far from what I should like it to be, but it is 'back payment' of five dollars for each year since I graduated. I want to send the same amount each year after this."

IS WESLEYAN STILL THE 'OLDEST AND BEST' TO YOU?

Itura (Moreland) Leigh, 1884

In 1928 she wrote: "Every year of my life, God willing, I shall send to Wesleyan a check for $10 or more."

The First Regional Meeting of Alumnae

At the Hotel Roanoke in Roanoke, Virginia, the Wesleyan alumnae of four states and the District of Columbia gathered on October 22 and 24 for the first Regional Meeting of alumnae.

The alumnae magazine was already on the press when the Wesleyan party of four (including Florence (Trimble) Jones, Alumnae President, Mr. Tigner Thrasher, Director of the Wesleyan Foundation, his wife, Evelyn (Thaxton) Thrasher, '33, and Eunice Thomson, Alumnae Director) left for Roanoke, so we can only tell you in this limited space that there were 23 people at the meeting, and that the group unanimously voted to meet again next year, probably in Washington, D. S.

The entire credit for the idea, for planning hotel accommodations, an inspiring program, a lovely banquet, and all arrangements goes to Suelle (McKellar) Swartz, '33, of Roanoke.

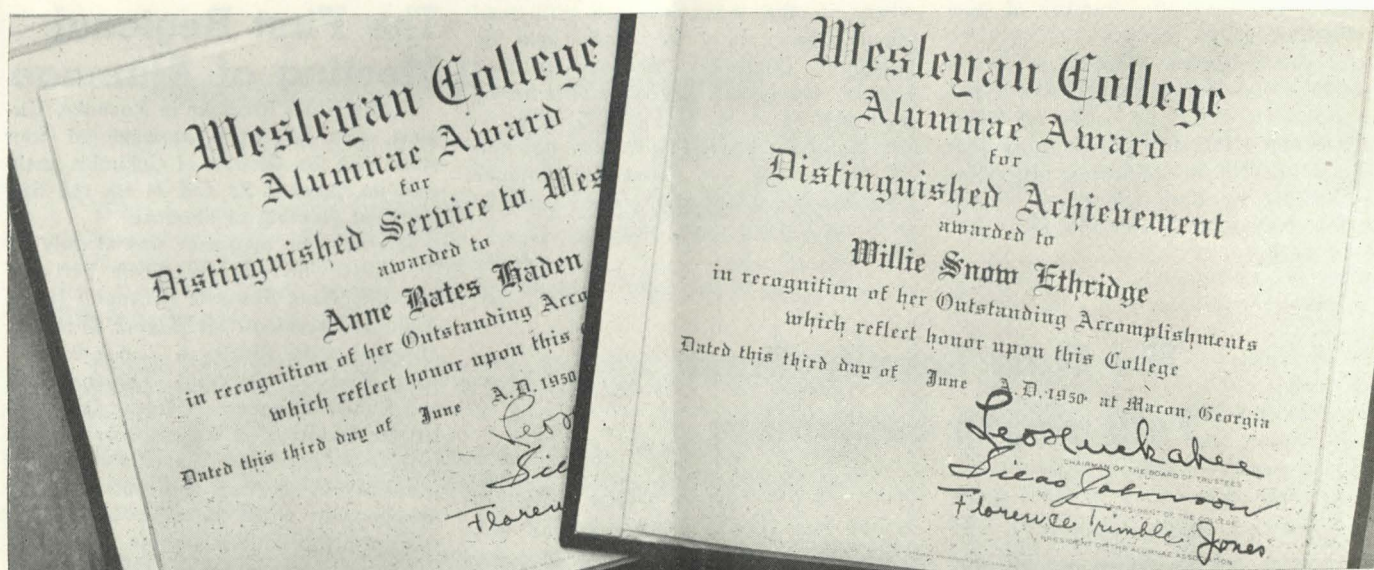

Present besides those mentioned above were: Rebecca (Caudill) Ayars, '20 of Urbana, Ill., Alumnae Trustee; Edith (Bayne) Bentley, '22, Mary Clayton (Jones) Meier, '26, Ella (Reese) Phillips, '04, Ruth (Trail) Graybeal, '12; all of Roanoke; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Payne of Roanoke (he is principal of Jefferson High School there and was guest speaker); Nell (Bachman) Phlegar, '04 of Christiansburg, Va.; Mary (Griffin) Smith, '33, of Elizabethton, Tenn.; Edith (Darter) Hale, '32, of Bristol, Va.; Lellen (Rice) Dawson, '45, and Patricia (Slater) Maxwell of Salem, Va.; Marybeth (Jones) Leach, '39, and Anne (Comolli) Warren, '40, of Lynchburg, Va.; Polly Phelps, '48, of Wytheville, Va.; Louise (Rainey) Price, '26 (President of the Washington Alumnae Club), Mary (Wilder) McClure, '00, and Annette (Richardson) Chappell of Washington, D. C.; and Ruth (Flinn) Harrell, '20, of Norfolk, Va.

Howard Losson Dies

The Wesleyan family was grieved just as the college year began at the death of Howard A. Losson, who was for the past six years on the music faculty of Wesleyan Conservatory as head of the department of music education.

Mr. Losson made an outstanding contribution to the conservatory, directing an orchestra which gave concerts in the Wesleyan chapel on several occasions.

His family, including his wife, the former Katha Sheara, and two young sons, T. A. Jr., and Richard, are still living in their home on Rogers Avenue in Macon.

THE ALUMNAE AWARDS

will be given for the second time this Commencement. You are urged to send in your nominations for these awards. Any Wesleyan Club, any individual alumna or anyone other than an alumna may make a suggestion, through the Alumnae Office, for one or both of these awards. A secret committee will go over all the material and recommend candidates for the awards to the Alumnae Board of Managers.

There are two awards: the one for "Distinguished Achievement" recognizes an alumna's success in some field of endeavor, in a profession, in her community, in her home; the one for "Distinguished Service to Wesleyan" recognizes outstanding service to the college. Only alumnae are eligible, and no alumna may be considered for the award while she holds an official position (on the Board of Managers, on the faculty or staff of the institution, as a national officer).

No definite number of awards shall be given any one year. Last Commencement eight awards were given, four for distinguished achievement, four for distinguished service to Wesleyan. The number to be given is to be decided by the Alumnae Board of Managers each year.

Each nomination must be accompanied by a statement from the sender as to why she thinks the alumna deserves the award.

Please tell also as much as possible about the nominee, and if all details are not available, tell how they may be secured. The committee on awards promises to give thorough and serious consideration in each case, and to make the awards as fairly as possible.

Nomination Blank

I nominate for the Alumnae Achievement Award:

.....

I nominate for the Alumnae Service Award:

.....

Signed:

.....

(Please sign your name and accompany your nomination with a letter telling why you think it deserved.)

CLUBS

ATLANTA CLUB

The Atlanta Club, with Dessa (Hays) Asher as president, gave its annual party in the late summer for the students leaving in September for Wesleyan, always a lovely occasion.

The club has had group meetings and officers' meetings during the fall, and in early December will sponsor a recital by Professor Joseph Maerz at the home of Eleanor (McDonald) Elsas, Alumnae Trustee, on Randall Mill Road.

The club gave $500 last year for an endowed scholarship, to which they expect to add each year.

For their November luncheon meeting they had as a speaker a young Greek girl who told of how her country had resisted communism.

COLUMBUS ALUMNAE CLUB

The Columbus Wesleyan Club held its first fall meeting on October 11 at the lovely new home of Helen (Lovein) Jackson on the Country Club Road.

Marjorie (Potts) Durden presided in the absence of the president, Mae (Eason) Hall. There was a brief business session, and an interesting program. We all enjoyed Frances (Holland) Pringle's hilarious and interesting account of her visit to her class reunion last Commencement.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served. Those present were: Elizabeth Rogers, Sara (Chappell) Carter, Emmie (Leonard) Martin; Frances (Holland) Pringle, Mary Ann (Mathews) Pease, Hattie Grace (Subers) Rahn, Jeanette (Rahn) Carey, Minnie (Smith) Faber, Marjorie (Potts) Durden, Elizabeth (Joyner) Rainey, Annie E. (Daniel) Brown, Julia (Wade) Fletcher, and Anna (Quillian) Janes.

Mary Ann (Mathews) Pease, Secretary.

MACON ALUMNAE CLUB

As the magazine goes to press the Wesleyan Alumnae Club of Macon, with Rebekkah (Oliphant) Anthony, '23, as president and Mae (Daley) Wayne as vice-president in charge of benefits, is busily at work on its annual Bazaar given each fall in the Conservatory Gymnasium for the benefit of the club's Scholarship Fund.

Last year the Bazaar brought in $600 for the Fund, and the club started an endowment to take care of those scholarships for Macon high school students at Wesleyan.

The Bazaar is a joyous occasion, and gives alumnae of all ages a chance to help the college. The faculty cooperates also, contributing articles for sale. (Last year the youngest person who had a part in the project was ten-year-old Anne Akers who made doll clothes, and the oldest was Gertrude (Benson) Arnall, A.B. '81, daughter of Wesleyan's first graduate, who made an apron as her contribution.) This year one member of the faculty has spent months growing African violets for the Bazaar, and others are putting in items they have made or bought for the occasion. (A feature of the sales each year is a painting by Emil Holzhauer of the art department.)

TIFTON ALUMNAE CLUB

The Tifton Alumnae Club, with Eula (Miller) Massey as president, entertained the four Tifton girls who are students at Wesleyan with a luncheon at the Alpine. A u-shaped luncheon table at which the members and honorees sat, was decorated with Wesleyan colors, lavender and purple asters combined with purple field berries.

Harriet (Goodman) Harman offered a prayer, and the club sang the Wesleyan Alma Mater. Katherine (Rountree) Christian greeted the honorees, and Clara (Puckett) Winston spoke on Wesleyan Today.

New officers elected were: Mary (Thurman) Gaulding, president; Margaret (Toney) Bowen, vice-president; Lavada Harper, secretary and treasurer.

THE GLYNN COUNTY WESLEYAN CLUB

The Wesleyan Alumnae Club of Glynn County (Brunswick, St. Simon's Island) has sent to Wesleyan a check for $135.00, which represents the proceeds (after expenses were taken out) of a recital by several Wesleyan students and faculty members sponsored last year by the club.

Sarah Hammons, A.B. 1937, is president of the club.

TEXAS WESLEYAN CLUB

When the Texas Alumnae Club of Wesleyan held its first meeting of the second year, the San Antonio paper had quite a nice write-up, with pictures of three of the Wesleyannes: Lillian (Mann) Jauquet, president, '41; Inez (Ward) Wright, '32, and Annette (Emerson) Loyd, '47. The club is the "first alumnae club west of the Mississippi," and its fall meeting this year was in the form of a luncheon at Inez (Ward) Wright's home.

Lillian was a Macon girl when she was a student, her father a minister of the South Georgia conference. After touring the states with her husband, Captain R. J. Jauquet of the air force, she is now settled in San Antonio where he is an insurance associate. They have a three-months-old daughter.

Annette (Emerson) Loyd was also from Macon, and her husband is in electrical engineering in San Antonio. They have two young children.

Inez (Ward) Wright was from Commerce, Ga., and was a major in dramatics, so has put her talents to practice in the New Orleans Little Theatre. Her husband is a doctor in San Antonio after serving in the air force. They have two daughters.

Included in the roll of members are: Myra (Palin) Lagerquist, '21, of San Antonio; Frances (Stephens) Robbins, '42, of Ft. Sam Houston; Katherine (Hudson) Herrington, '33, and Lelia (Aiken) Tenney, '41, both of San Antonio.

Any alumnae living nearby who would like to join the club are urged to write or phone Lillian, Mrs. R. Q. Jauquet, 237 Lenisa St., San Antonio.

Gifts to the Historical Collection

Frances Shumate, A.M. 1944, sent to Wesleyan recently the graduation essay of her grandmother, Julia Louise (Mathews) Parker of the class of 1864. It is entitled "John C. Calhoun." It had been treasured through the years by the author's daughter, Ella (Parker) Leonard, A.B. 1890, whose death in June brought sorrow to her many Wesleyan friends.

Dr. J. Calvin Weaver of Atlanta gave to the Wesleyan Historical Collection the diploma of his aunt, Marian Frances (Drake) Harrison, dated 1860. Dr. Weaver's sisters, Caroline (Weaver) Porter, '02, and Martha (Weaver) Sutton, '04, are both loyal alumnae of Wesleyan.

Eugenia (Coleman) Wasden, A.B. '31, has given to Wesleyan the diploma and class badge which belonged to her mother, Edith (Stetson) Coleman, A.B. '97.

About a Former Wesleyan Teacher

Mildred Cartledge Carey, formerly head of the physical education department at Wesleyan and now living in Augusta at 1845 Ohio Ave., was married on June 22 of this year to Rollis B. Bowman of Augusta. She says she loves learning a new "profession"—cooking three meals a day. She does some substitute teaching in the high school and junior college.

Librarians Meet In Atlanta

The Southeastern Library Association meeting in Atlanta brought together a number of Wesleyan alumnae. When Katharine P. Carnes, A.B. '13, from Wesleyand and her two assistants, Sara Lamon, A.B. '29, and Margaret Hatcher, A.B. '31, went to the meeting they saw the following:

Sarah Jones, A.B. '23
Virginia McJenkin, A.B. '27
Elizabeth (Gaulding) Sanford, A.B. '28
Katherine (McCamy) Powers, A.B. '29
Safford Harris, A.B. '31
Mary Clarke, A.B. '32
Florence (Weldon) Smith, A.B. '34
Elizabeth Whitehead, A.B. '34
Louise Stanley, A.B. '48
Emily Mallet, A.B. '49.

Hoyt McPherson Marries

Hoyt McPherson, younger son of Dr. and Mrs. N. C. McPherson, Jr., was married in August to Jane Brantley of Macon. Hoyt's father, former president of Wesleyand and now pastor of St. John's Methodist Church in Memphis, Tenn., performed the ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church in Macon. The couple will live in Macon, where Hoyt has a position with the Firestone Tire Company.

We Salute Two Ninety-Five-Year-Old Wesleyan Alumnae

Two Wesleyan alumnae, Ida (Frazer) Turrentine, A.B. 1873 of Miami, Florida, and Clara Belle (Wight) Wilson, A.B. 1874 of Albany, Georgia, are 95 years old as the November magazine goes to press!

Ida has somewhat the edge on her colleague, for she will be 96 on December 8, and Clara Belle was 95 on October 21. It is an interesting coincidence that their names appear on the same page in the old Wesleyan Matriculation Book for the year 1870-71, as they signed that they "solemnly promised to obey the rules of the institution while remaining pupils." On that long-ago date, each of the girls gave her age as 15.

Ida was an "Adelphean" and Clara Belle a "Philomathean." Each can tell amusingly of her college days when Wesleyan girls never went beyond the wall around the campus except on rare walks to the cemetery, when they walked two-by-two, accompanied by teachers at the front, at the back, and in the center of the line.

Each of these alumnae takes an alert interest in the affairs of her church, Ida as a member of Trinity Methodist in Miami; Clara Belle as a member of St. Paul's Episcopal in Albany.

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS

Allgood - Fuller

Joanne Allgood, Conservatory 1952, to Charles Homer Fuller, Jr., of Macon, September 3.

Altman - Housworth

Margaret Altman, 1953, to Jack H. Housworth of Atlanta and Ft. Jackson, S. C., June 14.

Bruce - Harris

Barbara Bruce, A.B. 1948, to Charles Leon Harris of Logan, W. Va., September 30.

Burns - Buzzell

Claude Burns, 1951, to William Joseph Buzzell, U. S. Army, October 22.

Center - Weltner

Betty Jean Center, Conservatory 1952, to Charles Longstreet Weltner of Atlanta, September 16.

Chapman - Henigbaum

Marion Chapman, B.M. 1946, to John Henigbaum of Chicago and Davenport, Iowa, September 2.

Clapp - Anderson

Jane Clapp, A.B. 1948, to the Rev. James Eade Anderson of Horseshoe, N. C., and Waynesboro, Ga., August 15.

Clark - Holloman

Ann Clark, junior class, to Richard Charles Holloman of Macon, October 28.

Compton - Thomas

Anne Compton, senior class, to Billy Lee Thomas of Macon, August 5.

Disbro - Orahoad

Carolyn Disbro, 1947, to Emory Gay Orahoad, Jr., of Atlanta and Sandersville, November 17.

Dixon - Harris

Geraldine Dixon, 1953, to Albert Grady Harris, Jr., of Macon and Decatur, September 6.

Drew - Sillay

Laura Drew, 1952, to Louis John Sillay, Jr., of the U. S. Air Force in Alaska, in the summer.

Edwards - Jackson

Jean Edwards, 1953, to James O. Jackson of Macon, April 22.

Eller - Morgan

Jo Ann Eller, 1953, to John Jefferson Morgan of Atlanta, October 3.

Hackett - Spence

Irene (Bush) Hackett, 1920, to Sam Bennett Spence of Wichita Falls, Texas in September.

Hall - Jewell

June Hall, 1948, to Robert Houston Jewell, Jr., of Chickamauga in the fall.

Hartman - McElrath

Elise Hartman, Conservatory 1952, to John McDowell McElrath, Jr., of Macon, September 17.

Henderson - Sudduth

Betty Jane Henderson, A.B. 1948, to Gaines Gayle Sudduth of Panama City, Fla., wedding to take place on December 28th.

Horkan - Cauble

Florence Horkan, A.B. 1950, to John A. Cauble of Atlanta in the fall.

Hoyle - Hill

Ann Hoyle, A.B. 1947, to Frederick McDonald Hill of Macon, the wedding to take place in December.

Jarratt - Goodloe

Dorothea Jarratt, A.B. 1945, to Lester Clarence Goodloe, Jr., of Macon, June 30.

Johnson - Flanders

Sally Blanche Johnson, Conservatory 1952, to Ralph Eugene Flanders of Albany and Savannah, June 26.

Jolly - Manly

Jean Jolly, 1949, to Frank Wright Manly of Dalton, in late August.

Kingery - Clay

Joyce Kingery, A.B. 1949, to Clarence Clay of Macon in November.

Lane - Carmichael

Ernestine Lane, A.B. 1948, to Benjamin Willingham Carmichael of Atlanta, June 30th.

Lanier - Davenport

Sarah Lanier, 1950, to Malcolm Clifton Davenport, Jr., of Greenville, S. C., and Opelika, Ala., October 14.

Logan - Russell

Jean Logan, A.B. 1950, to Ralph Edward Russell, Jr., of Metter, Ga., and Ocala, Fla., September 2.

Longino - Dunwody

Helen Longino, 1951, to Daniel Dunwody, Jr., of Macon, August 26.

Maddox - Ebright

Anne Maddox, A.B. 1937, to Claude Ebright of Atlanta and Paxinos, Penn., September 1.

Messink - Ross

Ann Messink, A.B. 1950, to Richard Travis Ross of Douglas, engagement announced in October.

Miller - Cannon

Mary Miller, 1952, to Charles LeGrande Cannon, Jr., of Macon, October 21.

Mouchet - Brannon

Jean Mouchet, Conservatory 1952, to L. Travis Brannon, Jr., of Atlanta, September 8.

Nims - Hogan

Mary Nims, B.F.A. 1948, to Lt. David Hiram Hogan, Jr., of Macon and Kessler Field, September 6.

Patterson - Avriett

Mary Love Patterson, 1946, to Edgar Knox Avriett, Jr., of Homerville, August 9th.

Phillips - Goodman

Elizabeth Phillips, 1951, to Harold Watts Goodman of Atlanta and Marion, N. C., in October.

Prickette - Powell

Carolyn Jeanette Prickette, 1951, to Pvt. William Powell, U. S. A. of Columbus, June 25.

Reynolds - Willis

Frankie Reynolds, 1951, to Leonard Wannbacher Willis, Jr., of Bainbridge, on December 26.

Rice - Dawson

Lellen Rice, Conservatory 1945, to Robert C. Dawson of Salem, Virginia, in the summer.

Rogers - Hamilton

Julia Rogers, 1950, to Robert Williams Hamilton, Jr., of Lexington, S. C., August 17th.

Routso - Davidson

Jean Routso, A.B. 1950, to Charles Warren Davidson of Lithonia, wedding to be on December 23.

Schofield - Spivey

Rosa Schofield, A.B. 1947, to Dr. Oscar Smith Spivey of Macon, and New Orleans, La., November 11.

Smith - Sherman

Constance Smith, 1948, to Edwin Rich Sherman, Jr., of Brunswick, July 22.

Spears - Smith

Patricia Spears, 1949, to Carl F. Smith of Chevy Chase, Md. and Chicago, in the late fall.

Thomas - Phillips

Rosetta Thomas, B.M. 1950, to Alec Mercer Phillips of Tifton, August 26.

Tomlin - Fetzer

Ernestine Tomlin, Conservatory 1946, to Harland Fetzer of Marlow and Macon, September 17.

Trask - Grizzard

Ida (Renfro) Trask, B.M. 1935, to James Carr Grizzard of Atlanta, July 22.

Veendall - Miller

June Veendall, A.B. 1949, to Harold C. Miller of Grand Rapids, Michigan. June 2nd.

Mrs. Florrie Cook White Dies

Mrs. Florrie Cook White, who was for 32 years on the staff of Wesleyan College in charge of the infirmary, died on September 3 at Mont Eagle, Tennessee, where she had been ill for some time.

To Wesleyan girls of the classes from 1906 through 1937 she was "Mother Florrie," taking care of them with the same patience, good humor, and firmness that their own mothers showed at home. One year there were 39 girls in the student body whose mothers she had numbered among her "girls" in former years!

She was a sister of Dr. Edmund F. Cook, former trustee of the college. and of Margaret Cook of the class of 1888. She was the mother of Dr. Goodrich C. White, trustee of Wesleyan and president of Emory University, and of Bettie Lou (White) Fisher, A.B. 1911 of New York. Her father was a former teacher and member of the board of trustees of Wesleyan; her mother was a graduate; her two grandsons were class mascots as little boys.

She served Wesleyan under five presidents, and her Wesleyan memories were among the most cherished of her life.

During her long illness, her mail box was flooded with messages from her Wesleyan "girls"; a number of alumnae attended her funeral in Atlanta, and two of these, going to the chapel where she lay the night before, placed in her hand a lovely flower on behalf of all of their college sisters.

As one president under whom she served said of her: "You are, and always will be, a part of Wesleyan."

IN MEMORIAM

Lizzie (Plant) Schofield, 1876
Annie (Tucker) Muse, 1878
Dolly (Tarver) Bull, 1882
Minnie (Morgan) Bailey, 1886
Elizabeth Ragland, 1889
Lula (Hurst) Atkinson, 1903
Ethel Burke, 1904
Margaret Evans, 1908
Lillian (Touchstone) Jones, 1938
Mary Lena (McCullohs) Barrett, 1950

Vinson - Shattuck

Bernie Vinson, senior class, to Warren Shattuck of Montclair, N. J., September 6.

Weaver - Paschal

Ann Weaver, A.B. 1950, to Robert Sheldon Paschal of Columbia, S. C., December 1.

Reunions in 1951

The reunion classes for next Commencement are:

Golden Anniversary Class 1901

Silver Anniversary Class 1926

1900,	1901,	1902,	1903
1919,	1920,	1921,	1922
1938,	1939,	1940,	1941

Begin planning to be here!

Sarah Ann White, one of last year's reunioners, wrote after she reached home:

"I want to write you while my heart is still aglow to try to thank you for the experience of reunion at Wesleyan. Sometimes as we remember the beauty and fineness of Wesleyan it seems like a dream to come back and find that it is lovely and even finer than we remember! I wish I could say thank you at Wesleyan for all that you have given me, but I never can."

CLASS NOTES

You will notice that we have an unusually large number of class notes in this issue, some about alumnae from whom we have not heard in a long, long time.

Happened this way: during the summer, having in the Alumnae Office some excellent help in the way of student assistants working to help with their expenses for the school year, we sent out geographical lists to alumnae—one in each city—asking for news of those alumnae. The response was overwhelmingly enthusiastic and prompt! We had lists with news returned from 71 of these "news agents," and we have had to save over some of the notes for the next issue.

To all of these alumnae (as well as to the others we sent lists to, who are going to send them back for later issues of the magazine) we send a very hearty "Thank you!"

1878

Wesleyan friends learned with sorrow of the death in September of Annie (Tucker) Muse of Albany in Columbus where her only son, Walter Muse lives. She was a loyal and active member of the class, one of the oldest alumnae of Wesleyan. In 1928 when the class of '78 held its never-to-be-forgotten reunion she was present, and wore a costume of her college days.

1880

Annie (MacDonell) Mathews, who was 87 on September 1, is still active and well. She was at camp meeting at Indian Springs this summer as usual.

1882

Mary (Jones) Anderson lives in Arlington, Virginia with her daughter, Elizabeth Anderson Pearson. Another daughter is Mary Anderson Chapman. Mary's only living grandson is Dr. Carleton Burke Chapman, associate professor of medicine at the University of Minnesota, doing special work in heart disease. His paternal grandmother was Flora (Smith) Chapman, first honor graduate of Wesleyan, and his grandfather for many years superintendent of the Macon schools. Mary has three Pearson granddaughters and four great grandchildren.

Word has reached the Alumnae Office of the death of Mamie (Willis) Battle of Columbus on July 22, 1947. Mamie lived a busy and useful life, and reared a large family of whom she had every reason to be proud.

1884

Lilla (Everett) Flournoy lives in Ft. Valley, and is still in excellent health.

1885

Word has just reached Wesleyan that Nannie (Davis) Jones of Albany died June 13, 1947.

Anna (Hamilton) Hunt is a widow, living with one of her five sons in Cordele, Ga. She enjoys growing lovely flowers, and takes an active interest in the Methodist church and the U. D. C.

Rosa (Stovall) Parker of Madison is very active, drives her own car and enjoys playing bridge. She has two grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Her grandson is a Lieutenant Commander in the navy, stationed in Greenland.

1886

Caroline (Branch) Fleming, widow of Judge Fleming, Crisp County ordinary for many years, is one of Cordele's loveliest ladies. Although not very strong now, she is still active in church work. Her two sons are Branch and Gladstone.

Maggie Lou (Fagan) Holland is still quite active, despite the fact that she is the oldest member of the Statesboro Methodist Church. She lives in her own home, a son and his wife and a daughter living with her.

Ada (Murphey) Pound lives with her daughter, Mrs. Tryon Huggins, in Athens and visits her other children and grandchildren. She is active in church work.

Emma Smith is at home again after seven weeks in the Macon Hospital with a broken hip. Her sister, who had been at the same hospital for six months is also at home, and they had the pleasure of a visit from their brother, Lovett, of Stockton, California, in the summer.

1887

Julia (DeLoach) Ver Nooy of Athens, despite the fact that she has been in a hospital bed for more than six months recuperating from a serious automobile accident, has been continuously active in her work for extending co-operative nursery schools in Georgia. She calls it her "occupational therapy," and her work on behalf of pre-school children of the state has been tireless and amazingly successful.

1888

Sympathy is extended to Clara (Boyn-ton) Cole in the death of her husband in July after a long illness.

Corde (Hawkins) Gatewood's health is not good, but whenever she is able she goes to her beloved church in Americus. The congregation honored her with a tea during the summer.

Carrie B. Wight lives in her old family home in Cairo, Ga. Her hobby is growing orchids.

1889

Anita (McClendon) Miller's grandson, Rickey Holden, has been making a name for himself in folk music. A recent album of eight records from the Folkcraft Library of International Folk Dances has on the back the information that "Rickey Holden, the Texas Whirlwind" calls the square dances in Alamo style. Anita herself spent some time in Madison, Indiana late in the summer checking up on fall migrant birds. She has recently had acceptances of her poems by American Bard, The Lantern, and Candor Magazine.

Ada (McElhannon) Holder and her husband, John N. Holder of Jefferson, Ga., retired this summer after 59 years as sole owners and editors of The Jackson County Herald. Mr. Holder has served as speaker of the Georgia House of representatives for eight years, member of the house for 18 years, mayor of Jefferson, charter member of the Rotary Club, chairman of the State Highway Board. Their children include two Wesleyan alumnae daughters, Kathleen (Holder) Griffin, A.B. '11, and Frances ("Pamp")

(Holder) Aderhold, A.B. '23.

Mellie (Powell) Jones is the widow of a Methodist preacher. Her children are: Dr. W. C. Jones, surgeon. Miami, Fla.; Margaret (Jones) Roddenbery, Cairo (A.B. '21); W. Powell Jones, teacher, Cleveland, Ohio; Joseph Jones, lawyer, Washington, D. C.; and Lucretia (Jones) Hoover, Cambridge, Mass. (A.B. '27).

1890

Sally May Akin of St. Augustine, Fla., has been visiting friends in Macon recently.

Bessie Anthony of Hawkinsville is known as a "saint" by her neighbors there. She has not been quite well recently, but is still a pillar in her church. She and Virginia Jelks, of the class of 1909, make their home together.

Olive May (Askew) Wilkinson has three sons, all married and living in Newnan. Her grandchildren are all outstanding students. Frank, Jr., expects to go to West Point after a year at Tech.

Massie (Crittenden) Lane keeps house in Americus for a daughter, May Frances, who works. She is well and had most of her children to visit her during the summer.

Minnie (Leake) Conyers has two grandsons, John Leake Conyers, and Claude Conyers, the latter making his home with her in Cartersville.

In addition to a $100 scholarship which she gives every year in memory of Mary (Nicholson) Ainsworth's daughter, Eloise, Hattie (Saussy) Saussy sent $60.00 this year which represents $1.00 for each year since her graduation from Wesleyan.

1891

Alice (Feagin) Whipple is the widow of Judge Ulysses Whipple of Cordele. She has three children and several grandchildren, and takes an active part in church and civic work. Her only sister is Mamie (Feagin) Harmon, 1890, of Macon.

Conyers, Ga., where Mary Culler White makes her home now, feels it is a real blessing to have her in their midst. After many years in China as a missionary, she has by no means retired into inactivity but is as busy as a bee making speeches, holding study classes, and writing. Two books published since her retirement tell of her life in China, "I Was There" and "Meet Mrs. Yu."

1892

Lula (Dunbar) Smisson and her husband recently went by plane to Nashville, Tenn., to visit a grandson, Dr. Robert Jordan.

Rosa (Gilliland) Gordy makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Hillard, in Atlanta. She has three daughters, six grandchildren, and six great grandchildren.

1893

Kate (Poole) Morgan's husband is a retired railroad man. They have a country home near Americus.

Mary (Robinson) Hobdy still makes her home in Union Springs, Alabama. She had the sorrow of losing her husband about two years ago.

Emma (Walker) Wylly of Darien has had a delightful summer on Staten Island and Long Island, where both of her children live.

Neila Lou Walton lives alone in Newnan since the death of a very dear cousin.

1894

Bettie Lou (Cary) Bloodworth's friends will regret to learn that her husband had a very serious operation in August. He was, when Bettie Lou wrote in late August, improving and at home in Wauchula, Florida.

Bela (Hill) Moreland makes her home with her daughter, Virginia, who is a Red Cross worker in Americus.

Rosa (Link) Forester of Thomasville is the mother of two sons and two daughters. Her daughter, Loulie, is a Wesleyan graduate of '25, now Mrs. Sidney Burns of Macon.

Burns, is a senior at Wesleyan.

Mamie (Robinson) Felton's husband has been a semi-invalid for some time. Her hobby is her yard where she has over a hundred different camellias which have won many prizes in flower shows. She has four sons and two daughters.

Julia Sparks is hostess for the University of Georgia, Atlanta Division's Recreation Center out twelve miles from Atlanta. She was formerly executive secretary and publicity chairman of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs.

1895

Alice E. Allen, who was in Shanghai with her nephew who is associated with the United States Consular Service, had to leave China and go to Tokyo, Japan, when the nephew Ellen Richard Turner, Sallie (Daniel) Dobbs' son, Carl, a member of the North Georgia Conference and stationed at Marietta, was at Wesleyan for the Pastors' School in September, and came by the alumnae office.

Evelyn (King) Gilmore's son, Eddy, who is chief of the Associated Press Bureau in Moscow, is coming home for a visit, and plans to take his mother on a trip with him to the west coast.

Elberta (Peacock) Leonard has two sons, three daughters, nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren. She lives in Austell, where her married daughters are living. A son, Robert, and his family live in Chicago, and a son, George and his family in Jacksonville. Elberta is interested in church, woman's club, and library work, and even reads proof sometime for one son-in-law who manages a printing establishment in Atlanta, and does substitute teaching.

1896

Willie (Barge) Terry now makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Wooten, in Shellman.

The spring Flower Show of the Spade and Trowel Garden Club was held in Minnie (Blitch) Harris' garden, one of the most beautiful in the section.

Ailene (Pitts) Corry of Barnesville was made chairman-emeritus of the library board of that city when she retired after 26 years as chairman. Another Wesleyan alumna, Sara (Cook) Smith, '27, took her place as chairman, and Evelyn (Griffith) Bush, '16, was re-elected librarian. Ailene's grandson, Gerry Corry, was christened recently, the son of her son, Jack Corry and his wife of Dayton, Ohio.

Sympathy is extended to May (Kenedy) Hall in the death in an automobile accident in California of her eighteen year-old grandson, Lamar Trotti, Jr., son of her daughter, Louise, and the movie writer and producer, Lamar Trotti. A younger boy, John Trotti, was seriously injured in the accident.

Lila (Napier) Jelks has just returned from a wonderful tour of Europe and England.

Sara (Turner) Houser went to Ft. Smith, Arkansas, in the spring to attend the marriage of her grandson, Billy Lee Garrett, and during the summer to Bristol, Va., to see her granddaughter, Hazel, graduate. (These are her daughter Ruth's children.)

Estelle (Willingham) Whitfield and her husband are such enthusiastic and successful growers of camellias that each year people from all over the state visit "Camellia Cottage" in the height of the blooming season. Recently a camellia was named for Mr. Whitfield.

1897

Sadie (Almand) Tucker still lives in Lithonia where her husband had a drug business for more than 50 years. Her sons are: Charles J. Jr., with the Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Co., as manager of the Atlanta district; Joe, teaching Spanish in Miami Beach High School; and Edgar, in business with his father in Lithonia.

Florence (Cohen) Lieberman is one of the leading women of Sandersville, Ga.

Jamie (Frederick) McKenzie has three sons, one a successful lawyer in New York, one a business man and farmer in Montezuma, one a Lieutenant Colonel in the army, at present stationed at Ft. Knox, Ky.

May (Nottingham) Lawton and her husband of Macon celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary in July with their daughter, Carolyn (Lawton) Harrell, A.B. '33, and her family as hosts for an informal reception at the Lawton home. Their son, Elliott, and his family from Atlanta, were also present. Their daughter, Emily, B.M. '26, who was in South America, was the only member of the immediate family unable to be present.

Helen (Powell) Lang is active in the Christian Church in Sandersville. She has quite a large family and their reunions are happy occasions. She takes frequent plane trips with her sons, Powell and Samuel, who are enthusiastic flyers.

Susie (Simmons) Dykes' health is not good, but she enjoys her children and grandchildren, three of each. Her younger son is a landscape architect and is sent by the government to every national cemetery to inspect the shrubbery.

Coming by the alumnae office during the Pastors' School in the summer to ask about his mother's class at Wesleyan was the Rev. Zach Hayes, son of the late Minnie (Swift) Hayes. He is a brother of Hanson (Hayes) Higginbotham, A.B. '38, and is married to Sara (Thompson) Hayes, '30.

May (Vinson) Walsh of Montezuma spends a great deal of time with a married daughter in Washington.

Bertha Wood's life centers around a nephew whom she reared from babyhood. At present they are together operating a gift shop in Montezuma, in the home of May (Venson) Walsh.

1898

Jessie (Barco) Markley lives with her sister in a beautiful home overlooking Clearwater Bay in Florida.

Mary (Callaway) Jones is serving as National Chairman of the Historic Activities Committee of the Colonial Dames of America. She is an ex-Historian-General of the U.D.C., and a member of the President's Council of Mercer University. She wrote the biographical sketches in the History of Macon, which was off the press in March.

Katie May (Peddy) Cuttino is very active in the Methodist Church in Newnan, being chairman of the parsonage committee. Her sons have both made a name for themselves, David as an architect, and George Peddy, a Rhodes scholar, as a professor at Swarthmore and Bryn Mawr.

Coralie (Scroggs) Brown and her husband, Col. Robert E. Brown of Perry observed their Golden Wedding Anniversary on August 29. Their children planned a lovely celebration of the occasion.

1899

Sarah (Foster) Stovall and her husband, now retired, live in Athens. Their one daughter is Mrs. John D. Wade of Marshallville, and they have one granddaughter, Anne Wade.

Lucy Gleaton has been called the "good Samaritan of Conyers" for she has always given her kindness and attention to the sick and sorrowful of her town.

Julia (Stovall) Trawick lives in Cedar-town, and although her health is not good, she still entertains graciously from time to time. Her only son, Stovall, is an official of the Commercial Bank.

Mattie Lee (Dunham) Mullis and her husband have built a home in Cochran.

Adele (Fincher) Shepard suffered a broken hip several years ago, but manages to do her housework in a wheel chair. She has a daughter, Annie Fred, who is with the Welfare Department, a son, Frederick, and one granddaughter, Marian.

Sympathy is extended to Kate (Finney) Munford in the death of her son, Henry Eugene Fowler, on July 31 in Guayaquil, Ecuador, S. A., where he was assistant manager of the United Fruit Company. Kate makes her home in Short Hills, N. J., with her daughter, Margaret (Fowler) Patton, '27.

Lizzie (Leake) Henderson and Romie (Leake) Milam live in Cartersville, the former with a sister, Miss Mary Leake. Lizzie was at Wesleyan for reunion in June with her daughter, Mary (Henderson) Scheuer. Romie has two daughters and two sons living in Cartersville.

Josephine (Reid) Brooks' husband is professor of economics at the University of Georgia. Their daughters, Jean and Anna, are both married.

A recent sketch in the Sandersville Progress told of Theresa (Roughton) Greer's wit and charm and other fine attributes.

1901

Edna (Arnold) Copeland has just written the first biography of Nancy Hart, we hear. It is called "Nancy Hart, the War Woman."

Birdie (Barkesdale) Sanders still lives on the "Longstreet Road" in Cochran, although the home place burned some years ago. She spends much of her time with her children.

Ouida (Beauchamp) Winn of Harlem has three sons and one daughter, and has ten grandchildren. Her daughter's son, who is 20, had a part in the sesquicentennial play by Paul Green presented in Washington, D. C., during the summer, "Faith of Our Fathers."

Maude (Brannen) Edge is one of Statesboro's leading women. She has reared a large family, now widely scattered. Her husband was an outstanding Presbyterian minister.

Dorothy (Rogers) Tilly was called to Washington in August by the Federal Security Agency to a conference to consider the problem of Agine. While sponsored by this agency, the conference was a national one with representatives from several organizations. It was urged that age be not the sole factor in retirement.

May Allen King suffered a broken hip during the summer.

Zulime Lane teaches in one of the county schools near Statesboro.

Katherine (Lovejoy) Akin of Cartersville has a son, Warren, in law partnership with his father and a daughter, Katherine, who is a public health nurse in Rome, Ga.

1902

Bertha (Adams) Ault and her husband live in Cartersville and make frequent visits to Cedartown to visit their daughter, Betty, and her children.

Mary Sue (Bullard) Herrington and a bachelor brother make their home together in Palmetto, Ga.

Kenneth (Flanders) Girardeau lives in Claxton. Her son, Rufus, his wife and baby live with her.

Irene (Murph) Banks is busy all the time as superintendent of the primary department of the Methodist Sunday School in Newnan, in the Reading Circle, WSCS. She enjoys Jimmy St. John, Bob Banks and Lollie, her three grandchildren.

Louise (Paddy) Wadsworth and her sister, Daisy (AB. '92), make their home together in Newnan, and take an active part in church work. Louise's red-haired son, Jimmy, works for a candy and tobacco company.

Anne E. (Williams) Pearce and her husband, a pioneer citrus grower, have a beautiful home overlooking Clearwater Bay in Florida.

Carrie (Wooten) Cooper's husband is president of the Pelham Banking Co. They have a married daughter living in Washington, Ga., who has twins, Ann and Addison, eight years old; and a son, Warren, who is secretary of Colonial Air Lines, New York City. Carrie and her husband and their son and his wife spent their vacation in Bermuda this summer.

1903

Nan (Carter) Strangward's husband is president of the Sylvestor Banking Company and has extensive farming interests. Their children are: Charles, now married and the father of a ten-year-old son; Evelyn (Wesleyan, '28), and Dorothy, now Mrs. Puckett of Washington, D. C. Nan is very civic-minded and active in the church, and has a beautiful colonial home with flowers blooming twelve months in the year.

India (Crittenden) Davis's son, Harry, married recently and lives in Cuthbert where he is in hardware business with his sisters, Anna, Martha, and Dorothy. Another of India's daughters, Isabel, is now Mrs. Jay Cranford and has three children.

Wesleyan learned with sorrow of the death of Lula (Hurst) Atkinson of Madison. She is survived by her son, Grady, ordinary of Morgan County.

Annie Lee (Lovejoy) Twitty lives with her son, Russell, Jr., this wife, and their seven-year-old son, Russell, III, in Hawkinsville, Ga.

Mary Lee (Pound) Gower's husband is a Judge in Cordele. They have three daughters and one son, Dr. Tom Gower, who is married to Dorothy Royal, Wesleyan graduate.

Jennie (Vereen) Bell's husband is Justice-emeritus of the Georgia Supreme Court. They live in Thomasville, and have one daughter, Mrs. Daniells. Their son, Vereen, author of "Swamp Water" died in World War II.

Nina (Wooten) Duncan of Buena Vista had the misfortune to break her hip and has been confined to her bed for some months. Her husband is a director of the bank, and her son, Clarke, W., is president of the bank. A daughter, Bess (Duncan) Crittenden, was at Wesleyan in the class of '33.

1904

Wesleyan friends were grieved to learn of the death of Ethel Burke of Macon in August after a long illness. She studied music at Wesleyan under Professor Hesselberg, and did concert work with him in Nashville, Tennessee, and elsewhere. She was well-known among Macon musicians, and did much accompanying for orchestras in this section. Her sister, Ruth (Burke) Muecke, '11, came out to Wesleyan since her death to show to the college officials the beautiful gold medal which she was awarded "for excellence in the art of pianoforte playing." It has an engraved picture of the towers of old Wesleyan on one side.

Hennie Mae (Crittenden) Bell recently visited her daughter, Rosa (Wooten) Henderson, '16, in Birmingham where she enjoyed seeing Rosa's grandchild, John Spenser, Jr.

Eleanor (Dallis) Stallings has for the past two years had charge of the high school cafeteria in LaGrange, and feeds over 600 children a day! She has a daughter, Mary (Stallings) Westrup, A.B. '41, and a son, Virgil.

Ella May (Evans) Rogers' daughter, Dr. Dorothy Rogers, has been promoted to full professor in New York Teachers' College, Oswego, N. Y.

Alice (James) Taylor lives with her daughter, Mrs. John Warren, at their beautiful country home near Conyers.

Ruth (Reid) Monaghan's husband is a contractor in Pelham, and their home is one of the show places of that city. Ruth is widely known for her club and community work. She is a director of Tallulah Falls School and one of its benefactors. She and her husband are fanciers and growers of camellias.

Lucile (Riley) Jordan lives a happy, busy and useful life in Perry, Ga. She is an ardent enthusiast in D.A.R., Daughters of 1812, and local and state garden club work.

1905

Eleanor (Barrow) Williams lost her husband in World War I. She has one daughter.

Weenona (Blackwell) Hewlett lived for many years in Conyers, but after the death of her husband moved back to her old home in Elberton with a brother.

Mae (Cook) McArthur keeps up her art and music, and is church pianist. She writes that they enjoyed a visit from Dr. and Mrs. Wiggins of Wesleyan during the summer. Mae has a grandson.

Maisie (Griffith) Taylor's husband has been with the Wilson County in Cochran for 33 years, and their only son, Billy, is married and living in Atlanta while he attends Tech. Maisie has one grandson, John Nicholas. She says she is interested in D.A.R., P.T.A., and woman's club work, besides bridge and canasta.

Jennie May (Jones) Prator has three married children and one grandchild, Robert Louis, age 3.

Ophelia (Smith) Guerry has four children and five grandchildren. Her youngest daughter, who is a widow, and her daughter live with Ophelia in Montezuma. Her only son is a Commander in the U. S. Navy, graduating from the Naval Academy in 1939.

Irene (Solomon) West lives in Montezuma in a duplex with her son and his family on the other side. Her older son lives in Atlanta.

Kate (Smith) Middlebrooks of Conyers has a home for old ladies. She also keeps up her art by taking a few art pupils from time to time.

Alice (Williams) Benton has within the last year or so taken up a new hobby in which she finds much pleasure, fishing. She still enjoys her flowers also.

1906

Ione Blake is a much loved nurse in Roanoke, Ala.

Annie Jean (Culbreath) Cotton's husband has been postmaster in Palmetto, Ga., for a number of years. Their only child is a daughter, Jean Cotton McKay and they are rejoicing in a first grandchild, Ann, whose picture appears in this magazine. Annie Jean says they waited nine years for this baby! The Cottons do not enjoy being away from home long, but have a trip to Florida in the winter and to the mountains in the summer. Annie Jean is interested in church activities and is promotion secretary for the WSCS.

Estelle (Darden) Bell is the proud grandmother of Linda Parker, daughter of Virginia (Bell) Parker, A.B. '47.

Julia (Johnston) Oliver, now a widow living in Cairo, Ga., is active in church work there.

Pearl (Jones) Prator's son, Clifford Holmes, teaches at the University of California, and last year was on a year's leave to do research work in Manila.

Edna (Mizell) Davis and her daughter, Kathleen, personnel officer at the Pulp and Paper Co., in Fernandina, went on a tour of old homes in Louisiana and Mississippi last spring. Edna is building a new home.

Lucy Mell (Overby) Alford is librarian of Sylvester High school and teacher of the women's Bible class of the Methodist Sunday School. She usually spends her vacations with some or all of her 15 children. This year she underwent a major operation in Macon on June 3, and could not see them all, but did visit one son, Commander Lodwick Alford of Washington, D. C. While there she saw Paul Green's symphonic drama, "Faith of Our Fathers," sesquicentennial celebration of the establishment of our nation's capital. She returned home over Skyland Drive with its many places of interest.

1907

Nelle (Carter) Dure has her own insurance business in Ft. Valley. This summer her first grandchild, a little girl, was born.

Inez (Daughtry) Burnet's husband is librarian at the University of Georgia. Both are interested in gardening.

Janie (Johnson) Tinsley's minister husband died January 21, 1949, and since that time she has lived in Oglethorpe with her mother, who is 88 years of age. Her daughter Dorothy (A.B. '35) and her husband (missionaries in Cuba) have three children, Martha Jane, 12; Thomas Carroll, 9; and Sara Keene, 3. Her son, Carroll, and his wife have two sons, William Carroll, Jr., 3; and David Evans, 1. Carroll is a Scout Executive in Florence, S. C.

Elizabeth (Jones) Franklin and her husband live at historic Birdsville, near Millen, Ga. Their grown sons are Ben, Jr., and George, an officer in the U. S. Army.

Alma (Haddock) McCurdy of Shellman is happy to have her sisters, Mrs. Ethel Curry and Miss Dorothy Haddock, make their home with her after their retirement from teaching in the Marietta schools.

Sympathy is extended to Elizabeth (Moseley) Coles in the death of her brother, Frank Moseley. Elizabeth's daughter lives in Teaneck, N. J., and her son is radiologist at St. Joseph's Infirmary, Atlanta. She has five grandchildren.

While visiting at Williamsburg, Va., during the summer, Jane (Moss) Fields met up with two of her Wesleyan classmates whom she had not seen since graduation, Tatum (Pope) Happ and Mattie (Chappell) Lawton.

Alice (Taylor) Walker's daughter, Ruth, and her husband have a son 13 and a daughter, 4. Their home, in Edgefield, S. C., which belonged to General Butler, has been restored and was on the state garden pilgrimage last spring. Alice's other daughter, Alice, is married to state Senator Charles A. Coffee of Richland, Ga., and they have a daughter 9 and a son 5, the former named "Alice." (There are now four living "Alices" of four different generations in the family.)

Elizabeth (Witte) Harvey of Monticello has three grown children. Her husband is a hardware salesman.

1908

Callie (Bell) Webb's husband is a lawyer for an insurance company in Americus. Their daughter, Callie Bell, was married last year.

Noralee (Johnson) Tiller of Carlton, Ga., spends much time at home now as she has her two little grandsons who became motherless seven years ago. She says she sees Mrs. Lula Chapman when she goes to Quitman and also stops by to see Louie (Fenn) Woodward and Fannie Fenn in Vienna.

Rubie (Lovejoy) Parks devotes most of her time to three precious grandsons who live with her, George, Jr., Joe Parks, and Bill MacNabb. Then she has four Cole grandchildren, three boys and a girl. Her only son, Joe, Jr., is a doctor who served in Hawaii in World War II, and is now practicing in Newnan.

Ilma (Mitchell) Abney of Athens has one daughter, one son, and several grandchildren. She had the sorrow of losing one son last winter.

Myrtle (Smith) Olliff's husband is in the mercantile business in Statesboro, and is president of the Sea Island Bank. Their only daughter, Helen is Mrs. Philip Weldon (A.B. '35) living near Griffin; their sons Charles and Ed live in Statesboro; George in Albany.

May (Urquhart) Peacock's husband is retired after 24 years as commissioner of Bleckley County, Ga. May is lucky to have her only daughter, Delores, and her husband and children, Andrew and Dale Kingery, living in Cochran.

Rietta (Winn) Blevins' daughter, Ann Blevins Dear, is on the Washington Bureau staff of the newspaper "The Philadelphia Bulletin." Earlier, in the nearly five years she has been in the capital, she worked for two magazines, Freedom and Union, and Bataan, and two London newspapers, The Times and The News Chronicle. Ann has the Phi Beta Kappa, and was on the staff of the Birmingham. Ala., Age-Herald before going to Washington. She is married to a newspaperman, Joseph A. Dear. Rietta's only son, Billy, is a graduate of Annapolis and received orders in the summer for overseas duty.

1909

Gussie (Adams) Norman's friends say she is lots of fun. She lives in Cedartown. Her daughter, Anne, is secretary to Senator Richard B. Russell.

Blanche (Moss) Logan's daughter, Mary Logan McKennon, received her M.A. degree in library science at the University of Denver in the summer, and is now librarian for the highway department of Colorado.

Lucile Smith's Wesleyan friends remember her as that "peppy little Shike," and friends say she is still full of pep. She keeps house in Palmetto, Ga., for her brother and two sisters and has a Sunday School class of children who adore her.

Annie (Turner) Ironside's husband, Dr. Harry A. Ironside, is a minister and religious leader, the author of many inspirational books. They were married last fall.

1910

Jimmie Lou (Cox) Haggard is postmaster in Cairo, Ga. She enjoys her two grandchildren.

Minnie (Crittenden) Colcord is now teaching in Thomaston. This summer she and her daughter, Martha, attended the University of Georgia summer school, and in August motored to Oklahoma for the graduation of Min's son, Marshall, from the University. Marshall's eighteen-months-old son was present for his graduation.

Word has just reached Wesleyan of the death during the past year of Myrtle (Dasher) Perkins of Millen. She is survived by one grown son, Mark, Jr.

Jennie Sue Daughtry is retired after teaching for some years, and lives in her own home in Allentown with a friend. Her community interests include the local Methodist Church, the D. A. R., and keeping in touch with her many friends. She, her friend and her English spitz, "Snowball" jaunt around the countryside in her little "Chevy."

Jewel (Faver) Glass' daughter, Katherine, is a librarian in the research division of the Calloway Mills in LaGrange. Her son, Robert Neil, is in Paris.

Frances (Graham) Goffe had a wonderful trip during the summer, going to Seattle, Washington, by train and flying from there to Alaska to visit a nephew. She took many side trips, to McKinley National Park, to the Arctic Divide, etc.

Sympathy is extended to Carrie May (Quillian) Tuck in the death of her husband in July.

Lessie (Trammell) Beckwith is dietitian at Athens, Ga., Junior High School. She has three children. Her daughter, Eloise, has a beautiful voice, studies in New York, and when she is at home sings in the Methodist Church choir. One daughter is married, and her son studies at the University of Georgia. Her husband is on the faculty of the University.

1911

Kathleen Albea is assistant cashier of the George D. Warthen National Bank in Sandersville. She is treasurer of most of the fund raising campaigns in that community, and is active in church and social affairs.

Lillie (Bradley) Neil's daughter Willie lives with her in Newnan. She has a son, George, living in Newnan also and another son and daughter who live elsewhere.

Helen (Carpenter) Buchanan is principal of Atkinson Grammar School in Newnan. She has a beautiful black-eyed granddaughter whom she visited in New Jersey during the summer.

Frances (Davenport) Hudson had a trip to Europe and a Mediterranean cruise during the summer. She is the proud grandmother of two grandchildren.

Sympathy is extended to Kathleen (Harper) Jaques in the death of her husband in August.

Adele (Johnston) Bussey of Atlanta wrote to Wesleyan recently to give us information about her aunt, Minnie (Johnston) Bradford who studied art at Wesleyan in the 1880's, and who died last year in Macon. Minnie taught in Texas after leaving Wesleyan, and was married to Edwin Foster Bradford, a descendant of Governor William Bradford of Massachusetts.

Helen (Mathews) Luce attended Indian Springs Camp meeting during the summer. Her oldest son, George, and his wife are doing mission work in Africa, and they have a little daughter.

Sympathy is extended to Reba (Menard) Wilcoxon in the death of her husband on September 19.

Sympathy is extended to Doris (Rickett) Montgomery in the death of her son during the summer. She lives in Warrenton, Ga.

The class of 1911 will be grieved to learn of the death on July 14 of Hazel (Hamilton) Rogers. This tribute by her friend Ann (Martin) Holmes was read at the August meeting of the WSCS at Mulberry Street Methodist Church:

When I think of Hazel, I recall these words from one of Shelley's poems—

"Music, when soft voices die,

Vibrates in the memory"—

for I believe all of us will remember her as our sweetest singer. She was gifted with a most unusual contralto voice of appealing quality and was always more than willing when called upon to sing for us. We loved her singing, not only for its beauty, but for that spiritual quality which was a part of her and which was reflected in her singing. Few of us who heard her sing "The Ninety and Nine" or "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," will ever forget it, as it truly was a spiritual experience. And so, her voice lingers in our memory.

In addition to her singing at our meetings Mrs. Rogers was in her place at the piano to play our opening hymn, and that was no small service to be prompt and faithful in attendance.

Her cheerful smile, her gracious friendliness, and her beauty of face and character won for her a host of friends who will miss her sincerely, and who will be the better for having known her.

And now, in the prime of her beautiful life she has gone from us, but we cannot be sad when we realize that she was spared much of the pain that is of this world, and could go from an active, serviceable, and lovely life to join the Choir Invisible in the City Not Made With Hands. Her faith was such that with Browning she could say, "Trust God, see all, nor be afraid!"

1912

Winifred Brooks, teacher at Albany Junior High, attended a six weeks workshop in Intergroup Relations at the University of North Carolina sponsored by the National Council of Christians and Jews.

Josie Lee (Jeffords) Herrin had a feature story published in the Savannah Morning News in August, a human interest story of the last Indian massacre in Georgia. She has two sons and eight grandchildren, ages ranging from one and one-half to eleven years. Josie had a tour of the mountains this summer, then spent the month of July at Savannah Beach with her children and grandchildren. She is planning a busy winter, free lance writing.

Pearl (Holland) Brady's daughter, Lila, teaches in Dalton, Ga. Pearl is now a widow, and lives in Statesboro.

A recent article in the Augusta Chronicle described the interesting hobby of Thena (Holt) Evans' husband, and pictures showed him at work at his kiln making beautiful articles of Washington County kaolin.

Wilma Orr is active in the WSCS in Ft. Valley, and was recently given a life membership by the society. She and her mother, Minnie (Rockwell) Orr, live together.

Martha (Peek) Brown is a widow, and lives in Cartersville, making frequent visits to her daughter, Martha, and her children.

Pauline (Phillips) Pickett and her husband, a retired dentist of Cedartown, have recently moved into a modern, new home. Their son, John, bought the old ante-bellum house just out to town and it is a lovely place. They have one little daughter, Eulalie, 7, to whom Pauline is devoted.

Elizabeth (Read) Westbrook is a widow, living in Cordele, Ga. She has three children and several grandchildren.

1913

Pauline (Camp) Stewart lives in Tupelo, Miss. Her only son, Parks Camp Stewart, is preparing for the ministry, graduated from Milsaps College this year, and is now at Emory.

Frances (Godfrey) Candler of Madison has two grandchildren, Suellen and Charles Candler Hunt. Her daughter, Frances Candler, assistant professor of history at Wesleyan, spent the past summer in Mexico studying on a Carnegie grant.

Ruth (Grice) Edwards, now a widow, has two married daughters living near her in Claxton with their families.

Sarah (Hearne) Garrard was one of the Wesleyan alumnae who enjoyed a trip to Europe during the summer.

Catherine (Polhill) Pate is very active in music club and church work in Hawkinsville. Her husband is president of the Planters' Bank, and chairman of the R. J. Taylor Memorial Hospital Board. They are planning to build a new home next door to their daughter, Catherine (Pate) Goode, A.B. '41, and her family.

Mae (Maxwell) Reynolds' husband is a physician in Cairo, as is her son, Dr. M. H. Reynolds. Another son, A. B., Jr., is a bank employee, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Krasig, and her husband are florists.

Artie (Shealy) Askew makes her home in Atlanta at 1729 Springdale Rd. She has two children, Elizabeth, married to Dr. Dodge Mentzer of Lakeland, Fla., and Price Merritt, who lives in Atlanta.

1914

Mae Ola Bishop teaches first grade in Winder public schools.

Cade Coggins and her mother live in Atlanta at 2894 Lenox Rd. After leaving Wesleyan, Cade studied art in New York, and is still interested in this field.

Josephine (Fleming) DeLamar keeps up her music, particularly the organ. She has three grown sons and two grandchildren.

Lucile (Flournoy) Truitt has two sons, Forrest, Jr., a decorator at Rich's and Robert, married and living in Albany, the father of a young son.

Mildred (McKenzie) Rumph is recuperating from an operation in Atlanta. She lives in Montezuma and seldom leaves her husband, whose health has not been good for several years. They have two sons and one grandson.

Florence (Rambo) Hattaway's husband is president of the Hattaway Lumber Co., in Brundidge, Ala. They have a married son and a married daughter, and six grandchildren.

Claire Robinson of Montezuma knows more about camellias and their care than many professionals. She attends every camellia show within a radius of a hundred miles or more.

Bessie (Rushing) Bradley's children are Mrs. R. L. Horne, Jr., of Lyons, and William D. Bradley, Jr., of Macon. Bessie lives in Hagan, Ga.

1915

Lollie Belle (Ernest) Jordan of Monticello has her daughter, Ann (of the Wesleyan class of '45) at home with her now.

Genie Griner is teaching in one of the county schools near Claxton, Ga.

Christine (Poole) Anderson's beautiful flowers make her yard a show-place in the spring in Americus, Ga.

Ruth (Smith) McCalla is experienced and expert in farming, and since her husband had a severe stroke has had the entire supervision of their farm near Conyers.

Annie Lois (Stowe) Fleming teaches first grade in Madison. Her sons, Julian and Allen, each have little daughters, both children about two years old.

1916

Ellene (Adams) Youmans' husband is in the furniture business in Metter. They have one married daughter.

Laura (Ansley) Hale teaches music in Americus. Her daughter, Barbara, attends Georgia Southwestern.

Anne Cloud Bass holds the M.A. degree from Columbia, and has taught mathematics in high school in Brundidge, Ala., for about 15 years. This fall she opened her own business school in Brundidge.

Nell (Etheridge) Lawrence lives on the beach in Fernandina, Fla., and loves it, although she and her husband enjoyed spending part of the summer in their mountain cottage in Western, N. C. Nell enjoyed a month's visit with her son, Jack, at Town's End Harbor, Mass., and made the acquaintance of her new grandson. One of the highlights of her summer was the fact that she had a series of interesting letters from her son, Bob, who spent three months in Luxembourg, France, Italy, Switzerland, England, and Scotland.

Verna (French) Shaffer's son, Harold, Jr., graduated from high school in Cordele this year at 16, had a wonderful trip with his class to Washington and New York, worked with his Dad this summer and is off at college this fall.

Mary Lee (Jones) Cromartie of Statesboro has one married daughter, Pruella. Her husband is in government farm appraisal work in Statesboro, and Mary Lee teaches in one of the county schools.

1917

Katherine (Acree) Whiting of Cairo lost her husband when her ninth child was quite young, and she has successfully reared this large family of talented children. Two girls married Methodist ministers. One son, Tom Acree, is a Methodist minister. One son, Deming, teaches a large Sunday School class in Albany, Ga. The youngest, Juliannet, graduated from high school in June.

Essye (Bedingfield) Taylor, her husband, and two married daughters all live in Dexter, Ga. He is a past State Exalted Ruler of the Elks.

Gertrude (Bell) French teaches music in the schools in Brundidge, Ala. She has two stepchildren, Hendrick, who served with the Medical Corps in World War II and is at Kansas City Medical Center studying; and Hallie who married J. R. Dickert and has two children.

Hazel Christopher taught school for a number of years, and now keeps the home place where her two bachelor brothers enjoy coming.

Clyde (McKinney) Etheridge of Winder has one son, Bob, who is taking a pre-med course at the University of Georgia.

Maude (Nutting) Leach has three married daughters, living in Douglas, Ga., Atlanta, and Baton Rouge, La., and a total of five grandchildren. Maude's husband is a banker in Cochran, and collects stamps and grows camellias on the side. While Maude was program chairman of the Woman's Club that organization enjoyed programs furnished by Wesleyan.

Miriam Rogers attends every year the Ashram held by Stanley Jones. This year it was held in August on the Isle of Shoals off the New Hampshire coast. While in New York on her return, she was able to secure admission to the Security Council session of the United Nations. There she heard Jacob Melik, Soviet representative to the Security Council, in a thirty minute speech denouncing the United States as aggressor in Korea.

Mary Alice (Strange) Daniel's husband is vice-president and general manager of the Webb-Crawford Company, wholesale grocers, of Athens. Their children are two married daughters, Dorothy, whose husband will receive his Ph.D. at the University of N. C., Tommie (who is written up in the '45 class notes) and a third daughter, unmarried. They have three grandchildren.

Pearl (Tinley) McMath's husband is in the cotton oil business in Americus. They are both active in church work.

1918

Jennie Marie Adams had a delightful trip to New York in the spring, visiting her cousin, Ruth (Adams) Beeland, '15.

Margaret (Atkinson) Clark is active in the Baptist church in LaGrange, having been superintendent of the Primary Department for years. During the summer she had a five weeks trip to Cleveland, New York, and Canada, and attended the Baptist World Alliance in Cleveland.

Grace (Beatty) Furlow is secretary of the Morgan County Welfare Board. She has a married daughter, a married son, and an unmarried daughter who works in Atlanta. She has two grandchildren.

Lillian (McRae) Roush and her family live in Cochran since her husband retired from business on account of a heart condition. Their daughter, Lillian, and her husband and little daughter, Donna Ruth Urquhart, live in Norfolk, Va. Their son, Duncan, is a junior in high school this year.

Helen (Maffett) Whatley has a lovely home in Montezuma, and enjoys her beautiful yard. Her daughter is in college.

Sympathy is extended to Florence (Mercer) Baldwin of Albany in the death of her husband in July.

Nyok Mei (Pan) Chen now lives on Formosa. Her son, V. T. Chen, and his attractive wife are living in the states at Pittsfield, Mass.

Theresa (Turner) Wilson and her husband operate a hotel in Natural Bridge, Va.

Mary Will Wakeford was promoted from captain to major by the U. S. Army, and is assistant GYA officer for the Heidelberg Military Post. Mary Will entered the service in August, 1942, and was commissioned upon her graduation from the fourth WAAC OSC class in October.

Mary Emma (White) Fitzgerald is librarian for the high school in Conyers, Ga., and is living with her aunt, Mary Culler White, A.B. '91, returned missionary from China. Mary Emma has one son, Charles.

1919

Lucile Crutcher is librarian in Nashville, Tenn., in a library which serves Vanderbilt, Peabody and Scarritt Colleges.

Edith (Munroe) Askew's husband is in the lumber business in Newnan, and is chairman of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church. Their children are Edith (Askew) Johnson, '43, and Billy, who is at Emory Junior College.

Mary (Powers) Burks has a new home in LaGrange. Her friends say she looks as young and pretty as when she was at Wesleyan.

Wilma (Ridgill) Cutts of Cordele has two children, Ann and Fred, Jr. Her husband is a lawyer and civic leader, and they are active in the Episcopal Church.

Augusta (Streyer) Miller's daughter, Katherine, who finished her work at Washington Seminary in June, was married in the summer to Bob Martin. Singing in her wedding was Rosaline Gilmore, A.B. '48, daughter of Augusta's Wesleyan classmate, Rosaline (Jenkins) Gilmore.

Sympathy is extended to Bessie (Tappa) Farris in the death of her mother on June 10. She had been a semi-invalid for several years, but was in bed just a short time.

1920

Gladys (DuPriest) Bozeman's four children have kept her busy getting them educated these last few years. J. W., Jr., has a degree from the University of Georgia; Evelyn finished her junior year at G. S. C. W.; Billy has his degree from Stetson and will soon complete his M.A. degree. Tommy is in the first year of high school.

Miriam (Jones) Brinson's daughter and son are both married, and she has three grandchildren, Lyn Reid, age 5; Buck, Jr., and Carolyn Jean Brinson, ages about two years and four months.

Lois (McMath) Mathis' son, a graduate of Annapolis, was married in June to Nell (McGehee) Moreen, '44, of St. Simon's Island. Lois has two daughters Lois and Lane. Lois, who attended Wesleyan in the class of '51, had a trip to Europe in the summer.

Mary (Melson) Butler's son, Melson, was married in August to Shirley Bloodworth of Macon. The bride's mother studied voice at Wesleyan.

Clarice (Ray) Brewster of Cedartown has two lovely grandchildren, Andy and Rayl, 3 and 1, the children of her daughter, Jane. Clarice's husband is president of Liberty National Bank, and their son, Ray, is attending Yale Divinity School, having won all sorts of honors at Mercer.

Sympathy is extended to Marion (Robinson) Cox of Monroe in the sudden death this summer of her husband, H. C. Cox, and also to his sisters, Lillian (Cox) Girardeau, A.B. '17, and Helen (Cox) Ingraham, A.B. '21, and to his niece, Frances Girardeau, Wesleyan student.

Willie (Snow) Ethridge's younger daughter, Georgia, was married to Marcum Jay Schneider of Louisville this fall.

Louise (Strange) Price's husband is a dentist. Louise is an accomplished musician, and sings in the Methodist Church choir in Americus. She has two grandchildren.

Louise (Thompson) Taylor and her husband own and operate the Cochran Furniture Co. Louise has taught in the primary department of the Methodist Sunday School for 20 years.

1921

Beulah Brinson teaches first grade in Millen, Ga.

Martha Clark of New York, daughter of Martha (Baker) Clark, was at home with her parents for vacation during the summer.

Frances (Garbutt) Tyler and her husband live in California, where he is a minister and teacher.

Charlotte McCants is director of the Barrow County Welfare office in Winder.

Emmie (Powers) Hart's daughter was recently married to Dr. Cleveland of LaGrange. Her son is building a home in Newnan, where Emmie teaches in the county schools.

Winifred (Rawlings) Gilmore's son, studying medicine at Emory, has won many honors for scholarship and leadership.

Anne (Tanner) Haley, her husband and son, John, who is a junior at Emory, live in Clarksville, Arkansas. During the summer they visited Anne's mother and sister, Ruby of the class of '24, in Lawrenceville, Ga.

Miriam (Wall) Hutchens teaches in Norcross, Ga. Her son, William, Jr., entered West Point Academy in July. Her other son, Dan, is in high school.

Elizabeth Williams teaches third grade in Cairo.

1922

Lena Belle (Brannen) Hanner and her husband both teach at Georgia Teachers' College in Statesboro. Their son is in his second year in college.

Bruce (Cleckler) Flanders attended a three weeks Leadership Conference at Florida State University, the theme of which was junior high school education in Florida. She is teaching in Sebring.

Bertha Mae (Daniel) Patillo, her husband and 12-year-old daughter have recently moved back to Dexter after living in Washington, D. C., and Bertha Mae is teaching seventh grade.

Ruth (Dietz) Radebaugh of Perry is active in the Presbyterian Church and in the Book Club of Perry, Ga.

Annie (Drewry) Molnar, her husband, and three sons, Atlas, Tibor, Jr., and Marc have recently returned from an extended trip to the west coast. Two of the boys are in college; one is married and lives in Eufaula, Ala.

Gladye (Dukes) McMillan is president of the WSCS in Sandersville, and her husband is representative of Washington County in the state legislature. Her son, Weston (Sapp) Kirby has a job with the Welfare Department in Newnan. Her hobbies are raising camellias and collecting beautiful figurines.

Anna (Winn) Paul, now a widow, lives in Austell, Ga. Her five children are: Nancy Ann, working in a doctor's office in Atlanta; Ellen, married; Caroline, still in school; Winston at Tech; Pat, working. Anna has a position in Atlanta.

Sara (Wood) Mercer teaches in the public schools in Lumber City.

1923

Genevieve (Broome) Jones and her husband have bought a home in Waverly Hall, Ga., near Columbus where their daughter, Frances (Jones) Duskin and her husband and three children live.

Gertrude (Butler) Hughes of Cairo has a daughter, Libby, and a son, Barnwell.

Charlie Burton (Hawk) Emmett's friends in Cedartown say she is staunch and brave despite many tragedies. She lost her only son in World War II. In January her husband had a heart attack, and they sold the Cedartown Standard of which he was editor and Burt wrote a newsy column called T 'N' T. During the spring her father died. Her mother is an invalid.

Ann (Ellis) Pendergrass' husband is a well known X-ray specialist in Americus.

Sarah (Higdon) Rand represented Wesleyan at the inauguration of Dr. Lindley as president of Atlantic Christian College in Wilson, N. C., on November 1.

Emmie Johnson teaches piano in Sandersville and is organist at the Methodist Church. Her student recitals have won wide recognition.

Leona (Letson) Wiley and her family have a German boy living with them and going to high school with her son, Bob.

Louise (McKenzie) Jones' husband is a Buick dealer in Americus, and both are active in church and civic work. Their son, Phil, Jr. is a junior in high school.

Emily (Park) Herman's husband is a physician in LaGrange. Her son is studying medicine, and she has two daughters, Ann and Carolyn.

Lel (Quillian) Freeman's husband has a hardware store in Newnan, and Lel cooks delicious things for parties, weddings, etc. Their sons are Sam, Jr., who graduated from Auburn in August, and David, who entered this fall.

Blanche (Rice) Brawner's granddaughter, Martha Rambo, was christened at the First Methodist Church in Marietta on September 3.

Sarah (Rogers) Roughton's son, Ralph, Jr., won the state music contest in the spring, and entered college this fall. Her daughter, Sarah, is a student at Wesleyan.

Ruth (Sears) Patterson is bookkeeper Walter, was graduated this summer from the Woodrow Wilson School of Law.

Nell (Eley) Collier is the proud grandmother of James Trotter, Jr., fifteen months old. She has a married daughter living in LaGrange, and one other daughter, Isabelle. Nell recently had a most interesting trip to Montreal, Quebec, and other points in Canada.

Cecil (Hicks) Queener lives with a semi-invalid mother, and grows beautiful flowers. She has one son, who was married this year.

Jewel (Holt) Lang owns and operates a grocery store in Sandersville which has become a popular meeting place. Her son, William K., Jr., is in the air corps and her younger son, Neal, is in high school.

Helen (McKinney) Clark of Chattooga, Tenn., has a daughter, Helen, who was married last Christmas to Charles E. Hawkins, brother of Mildred (Hawkins) Jones, A.B. '49. Helen's son, Martin, is in his second year at Georgia Tech.

at Patterson Hospital in Cuthbert. Her daughter, Echo (Patterson) Spoon, '46, is teaching in the high school in Cuthbert.

Mary (Sheffield) Shayne has a young daughter, Bobbie, who attended Camp Chattooga during the summer.

Dorothy (Toole) Ezell's husband is county school superintendent in Monticello. Her daughters are Dotty and Beth, ages 10 and 14.

1924

Elizabeth (Comer) Wiese enjoyed having her mother, Lula (Johnson) Comer, '94, with her for a visit at her home in Legerwood, N. C., during the summer. Elizabeth's two daughters are Betty, 16, and Mary, 14. Betty plans to go into nursing, and Mary wants to come to Wesleyan.

Ailene (Corry) Arensbach was recently made Chapter Correspondent of the Southeastern Area, American Red Cross, and has jurisdiction over chapters in Louisiana and Northern Mississippi.

Harriet (Flanders) Simmons' son was recently married to a Wesleyan graduate, Jean Logan, '50. Her daughter, Binky Russell, is a senior at Wesleyan.

Elizabeth (Foy) Cannon has the M.S. degree from Emory; taught at Georgia State Teachers' College and in the U. S. government school in Cristobal, Canal Zone before her marriage to Walter L. Cannon in 1934. He is owner of the Cannon Machinery Company of Albany. Their children are Walter, 14, Ann, 11; and Judy, 6. During the summer she attended Emory Workshop and is teaching English and science in Sylvester. Her hobbies are linens, china, and Chinese furniture and art, and she has some fine pieces collected while in the Canal Zone.

Evelyn Hatcher is considered one of the best teachers in Thomson High School. She lives at home in Harlem with her mother and commutes to Thomson.

Eloise (Humphrey) Daniel's son, Ed, Jr., is a graduate of the University of Georgia and is now teacher and assistant coach in Newnan High School.

Nell (Lester) Buckner's daughter is a senior in college this fall.

Elizabeth (McCrary) Guy and her husband, who is a drug salesman, have recently returned from a delightful trip through the western states.

Ora Mizell writes in October: "I had a wonderful trip to Cuba in August. In Havana I had a visit with the Rev. Harry Bardwell, Kathleen's father. He is retired president of Candler College, and the alumni gave him the money for the home he now lives in.

"At Omaja, Oriente Province, I visited Sara Fernandez, '30, Methodist missionary in this town which is almost 12 hours by bus from Havana. Sara is an ordained minister, teaching, visiting, nursing, etc. She holds church school at a small place called Sabanso under a tree, as there is no church in this community. (Through her efforts, however, a small chapel is being erected.)

"I also visited Lillian (Cooper) Carter, A.B. '22, at the U. S. Naval Base, Guantanamo Bay where her husband, a lieutenant, is stationed.

"Cuba is beautiful, and our church has done a great deal on the island. It was a marvelous trip!"

Sympathy is extended to Elizabeth (Proctor) Thompson of Cochran in the death of her husband, Lewis Thompson, after a long illness. Elizabeth has one daughter and one son.

Helen (Ridley) Smith's husband is the Ford dealer in Manchester, Ga. They have one daughter, Helen. During the past year she went to Cuba and to New Orleans to Mardi Gras.

Flynn (Vise) Pickens' daughter, Martha Aileen, was married September 3 to James Luna Anderson in Decaturville, Tenn.

Carolyn (White) Izlar's daughter, Laurie Virginia, is married and recently received the M.A. degree; her son, Larry, is in the service. Carolyn's husband is in the insurance business, and she is active in the church and is treasurer of the Garden Club in Ocala, Fla.

1925

Martha (Acree) Shanahan lives in Hyattsville, Md., 5006 53rd Place.

Margaret (Burghard) Johnson has just built a summer cottage in Highlands, N. C., and spent the summer there with her son, Peter. She says that Frances (Bush) Brubaker, '27, and her two fine big sons and lovely little daughter spent a week with her after Frances finished teaching at Wesleyan summer school.

Mary Ella Camp is secretary of the Reading Circle, Delta Kappa Gamma, member of the Pilot Club, president of the Wesleyan Service Guild, superintendent of the junior department of the Methodist Sunday School in Newnan, and member of the Newnan Educational Association. She teaches four classes of senior English in the high school, and in her "spare" time chauffeurs for her mother and father. During the past summer they took a trip covering 17 states, and spent most time in New Orleans, Baton Rouge, and Memphis.

Sympathy is extended to Mary (Dunn) Floyd in the death of her father in October.

Laree (Farr) Blanks writes of her great disappointment a missing the class reunion. She had made all plans to come with a small bandage on her forehead where she had had a slight growth removed, but hadn't expected her face to swell, especially one eye. She is fine again, but her thirteen-year-old daughter, Patricia, broke a bone in her foot this summer and is still in a cast. Bruce, her son, has a summer job with radio station WATL in Atlanta.

Martha (Garrett) Turner is one of the most popular persons in Cedartown. She spends much time with the teen-agers, teaching them games, dancing, and hobbies, all out of the love of her big heart. Her husband is City Manager.

Ora Johnson has had some nice trips recently—to California, to Oklahoma and Texas, down the west coast of Florida. She spent the month of June with her sister at her country home near Thomasville, and the rest of the summer in New York, Boston, and Washington, D. C., before returning to Valdosta in the late fall.

Janet (McRitchie) Hollis enjoys her camellias at her home in Newnan. Her husband is associated with Johnson Hardware Company in Newnan, and their son, Edgar, Jr., has his Master's from Emory and spent the past summer in Europe.

Blanche (Parker) Johnson and her husband of Millen are building a new home. They have one son, Merrill, Jr., 15.

Becky (Ray) Turton of Brunswick writes that she spent most of the summer flat on her back with an old spinal injury which flared up. She still thinks of what a good time she had at commencement in June, so good that she plans to come back next year with Elise (Spoon-er) Avera when her class has its 25th!

Elizabeth Rogers teaches in the grammar school in Sandersville, and takes an active part in the Youth Fellowship group of the Methodist Church.

Alma (Taylor) Nicholson of Dexter, Ga., writes that the commencement pictures in the magazine made her wish that she could have been back for her 25th Anniversary reunion. Her husband combines livestock auctioneering six days a week with his livestock farming at home. They have a son, 15, and a daughter who teaches first grade in Fitzgerald.

1926

Elizabeth (Banks) Jarrell's daughter, Betty Banks, is a sophomore at Wesleyan, and she has a son, Billy, in high school.

Ora (Bates) Ingram's husband is a lawyer in Cartersville, Ga.

Virginia (Brown) Salter and her 13-year-old Jean enjoyed a visit with Lucile (Wilder) Shirah when they met in Selma, Ala., as Lucile, her husband, and two children were passing through. Although they had not seen each other since their graduation, Virginia and Lucile recognized each other at once. The Shirahs live in New Orleans.

Mary (Crum) Moore has been for two years Regent of the D. A. R. in Americus. She has two daughters, Mary Pierce, who graduated from high school in June, and a younger girl.

Laura Belle (deBeaugrine) Todd's husband is principal of the high school in Warrenton. Their one son, Bobby, completed work at the University of Georgia.

Meda (Garbutt) Walker operates a hotel in Sandersville. Her daughter, Janet, received her diploma from high school this year.

Louise (Johnson) Tillman's daughter, Jane, was married in July and now lives in Henderson, N. C.

Katherine (Manget) Farmer has a lovely home, "Joyland," in Newnan where she, Millard, Millard, Jr., Katherine and Elizabeth entertain their friends. Among the first groups they invited were the teachers in Newnan.

Sara (Oliver) DuPree's son, Walker Bowen, received his degree from the University of Georgia in June and went to Europe in the summer with college friends.

Lashia (Urquhart) Sears is a widow living in Cordele with her four children. She teaches and is organist in the Methodist Church.

Elizabeth Watson received her M.A. degree in welfare work at Tulane last year, and has a position with the welfare department in Macon.

Vi Loula (White) Beckham of Ft. Valley works at Warner Robins. Her daughters are Betty and Billie Ann.

Virginia (Williams) Wight's husband owns the Wight Motor Company in Buena Vista. They have three children, Burton, Jr., a student at Emory, and Carolyn and Lawrence (twins) who will finish high school next year.

1927

Jean (Askew) Powers lives at a pretty country home near Newnan. Her son is quite a big boy now. Jean helps to look after her mother, who is confined to her bed.

Lilas (Baldwin) Turnell and her family are moving to Elizabethtown, N. C. Friends in Madison, where she is active in church and civic affairs, will miss her greatly.

Captain Lucile Barco (Army Nurse) has been transferred from Washington to Ft. Monroe, Va., 76 Ingalls Rd.

Margaret (Barge) Cates of Newnan started her little daughter, Angelyn, to school this fall.

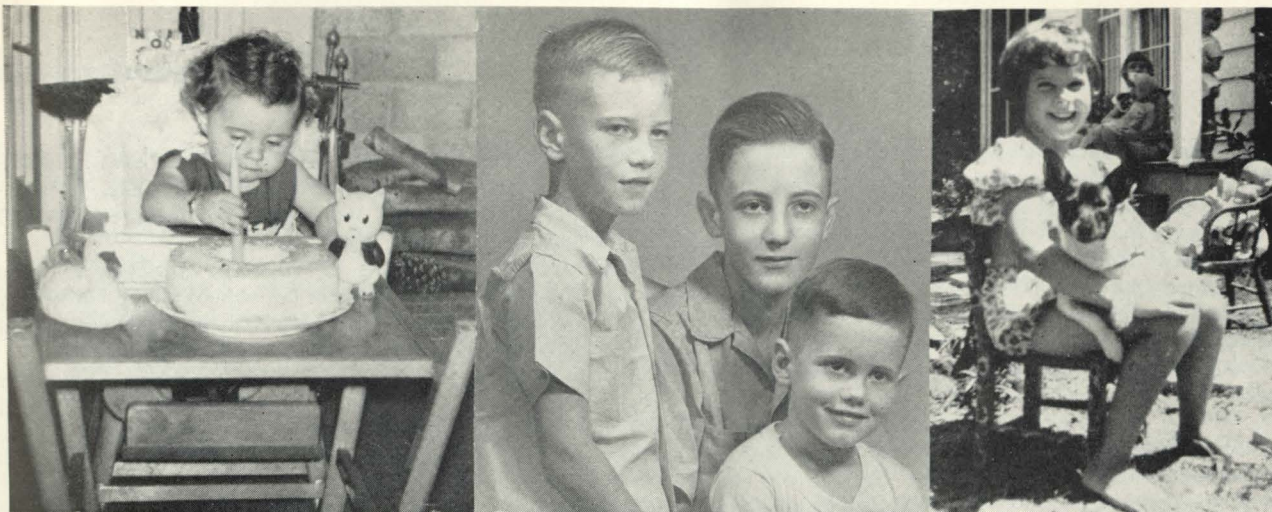

Sympathy is extended to Lois Birch in the death of her mother in September.

Eva (Brewer) Taylor of Doerun and her husband are building a new home in Doerun. Their older son received his degree from Emory in '49, and when Eva wrote expected to be in service shortly. Their second son will graduate from high school next year, and Anna, their daughter, entered high school this fall. Anna is an enthusiastic horsewoman.

Jewell (Easterling) Tippins has recently taken up a new work as educational consultant for the New Compton Encyclopedia. She is living in Claxton, Ga.

Florence (Fort) Collins' daughter, Nell Page, married John West Sheffield, Jr., of Americus in June. Florence has a younger daughter, Florence, who graduated from high school in June.

Evelyn (Gibson) Mathews' son, Sammy, entered West Point recently. Her twin daughters, Mary and Beth, are 15.

Whose Children
and Grand-
Children?

Top row, left to right: Jean (Culbreath) Cotton's (A.B. '06) granddaughter, Ann McCay; Frances (Callahan) Belk's (A.B. '25) sons: Leon, Paul, Jr., and Dixon; Margaret (Boyd) Whitnel's (A.B. '31), daughter, Linda.

Second row: Hattie (Branch) Sibley's (A.B. '25) daughter, Harriet (granddaughter of the late Harriet (Hollinshead) Branch, A.B. '90); Carroll (Boyd) McLean's (A.B. '28) daughter, Florence Carroll English; Mary Eva (Ray) Flanders' (A.B. '45) daughter, Deana.

Bottom row: Elizabeth (Padrick) Snelson's (1925) daughter, Carolyn Elizabeth; Carolyn (Malone) Carpenter's (A.B. '39) son and three daughters; Kit (Frazer) Martens (1944) with her two daughters, Mary Ann and Kathy; (and just under these) Ruth (Powell) Lovett's (A.B. '31), William Powell ("Billy").

Carolyn (Manget) Kirby went to Europe during the summer with her family, Wilkins, Wilkins, Jr., and Carolyn. She is Baptist Church in Newnan.

Elizabeth (Murray) North has a high-school age daughter who is said to be a beautiful girl, and also a son.

Nellie (Wade) Coile's daughter, Nancy, won the Good Citizenship Award and history medals in high school in Cuthbert last year.

Ione (Walling) Thomason has been busy this spring and summer nursing her husband back to health after a serious accident. However, he has now recovered. She is a tireless worker in the church, president of the WSCS in Sylvester and a member of the Methodist choir.

1928

Emily (Anderson) Houser has two daughters, Claire, Wesleyan conservatory student, and Mary Killen who is 13. Emily and her family are soon to have a new home in Ft. Valley.

Marian (Arnall) Roberts' son, Arnall, graduated in June from LaGrange High with an excellent record, and is this fall at Vanderbilt. Her younger son, Van, is eleven.

Frances (Bates) Chandler's daughter, Leiser, is eleven years old. Frances has a clerical position with a wholesale grocery firm in Selma, Ala.

Pauline (Brooks) Guerry has just completed a new home in Montezuma. She has a daughter, Gloria, who is a college junior.

Nell (Cooper) Bewig's husband is an optometrist in Selma, Ala.

Cleo (Coley) Love's husband retired after 27 years as school commissioner of Walker County, Ga. Cleo teaches organ and piano, directs a civic chorus, is on the executive board of the Chattanooga Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, gave three organ recitals during the summer in the vicinity of Chattanooga. Her daughter, "Lee" is musical, but does not want music as a career and is studying to be a medical technologist. Lee attended an aquatics school under the direction of the Red Cross during the summer, and has taught 156 persons how to swim. She gave an exhibition of water ballet to music in the summer, which of course pleased her mother.

Sara (Crittenden) Huie has five pretty daughters, Helen, Mae, Ann, Elise, and Virginia.

Florence (Crum) Daniel has three sons, Harry, David, and Remer, the oldest entering college this fall.

Miss Iva Gibson, Wesleyan's counsellor of women, traveling in the summer for the college in South Carolina, had a delightful stay with Mary Edna (Dowling)

Leonardi and her family at their motor hotel in Walterboro.

LeVert (Franks) Lang and her husband take frequent trips in their private plane. Their son, Powell, Jr., attended North Georgia College at Dahlonega. Their daughter, Martha (of the Wesleyan class of '51), is now Mrs. W. W. Wiggins of Sandersville and the mother of a young son, William W., Jr., born in March.

Frances (Grice) Guin's husband has been called back into the service.

Sympathy is extended to Maria (Mann) Mallet in the death of her husband, Joel Byars Mallet on June 24 in Lawson V. A. Hospital. He was a brother of Pauline Mallet, 1909.

Leita (Moore) Morgan is the capable principal of Furlow Grammar School in Americus. Her husband is a railroad official and their son, John, is at Emory, studying dentistry.

Mary Lou (Reynolds) Arnold's daughters, Sandra, 13, and Emelyn, 8, were at camp in Rome, Ga., during the summer, the younger awarded an honor for the third consecutive year for her dancig. The older entered high school in Warrenton this year.

Judy Seaman is doing secretarial work in Cordele, Ga.

Dorothy (Spearman) Chambers' husband has farming and orchard interests in Madison. Their children are Bill, 14; Dorothy, 9; and Jane, 7.

Evelyn (Strangward) Houston is against for the Sunday School in Sylvester and an officer in the WSCS. She visited with a group of Wesleyannes at a WSCS conference in June, and chatted recently with Mildred (Jackson) Cole and her sister, Dolores (Jackson) Davis, in Albany. Evelyn's husband is a lawyer and farmer, and their two children are Nancy, 13, and Susan, 7.

Martha (Watts) Harris and her husband spent the summer at Panacea, Fla. They make their home in Sandersville.

1929

Edna (Alexander) Holley's time is well taken up with the Little Theatre in Palm Beach, Fla., know as the "Norton Gallery Players, Inc." Edna is serving her second term as president. This year is the tenth season. Edna has a daughter at Duke. Her husband is in the wholesale lumber business in West Palm Beach.

Orlean (Ansley) McNeil has two grown sons, both married and both farming on farms adjoining hers near Americus. She is active in the social and religious life of the community.

Marjorie (Bailey) Howard's husband is a prominent lumberman in Augusta, and Marjorie is considered an authority on rose culture. Her garden is open to the public each year. They have a daughter, Margaret, and a son, Jake, Jr. Marjorie's twin sister is Margaret (Bailey) Roth of Arlington, Va.

Anne E. (Benton) Jordan's children are: Billy, in law school at the University of Georgia; Carl Jr., in high school, and Joanne, 10.

Nelle Lee makes her home with her father and sister, Rubie Lee, who was a missionary to Korea for 18 years. Nelle teaches music in the county near Statesboro.

Cora Mae (Pillans) Murrell has a junior high school aged daughter, Mayfair.

Nancy (Maddox) Rivers' daughter, Nancy, is fourteen years old.

Nanette (Ruff) Cone has two teen-age children, Gilbert, Jr., and Harriet. Nanette teaches music in Statesboro.

Charlotte (Shields) Langford of Lafayette has a little daughter, Jane, who is talented in piano. Her husband is a judge.

Sympathy is extended to Elizabeth (Smith) Buchanan of Americus in the death of her mother in July. Elizabeth's husband is in the hardware business in Americus and also has farming interests. Their daughter, Betty, enjoyed a trip to Europe in the summer. Their son is a student at Emory.

Nancy Stewart, head of the department of romance languages at Wesleyan, and Milda Cizauskas of the physical education department enjoyed a trip to Canada during the summer.

Mary (Winn) Harris and her husband have a lovely home in Cordele, and are active in the Baptist Chprch. Their children are Tommy, Maria, and Lily Ray.

Catherine Alley received the M.A. at Appalachian State Teachers' College in Boone, N. C., this summer.

Geraldine Wheeler received in August at Mercer University one of the first two M.Ed. degrees in vocational education to be given in the state of Georgia.

1930

Dorothy (Adams) Gilbert's daughter, Emmy, studied art with Mrs. Herbert Ferree of London, who is teaching on St. Simon's Island.

Irma (Bell) Jackson teaches in the county schools in Cartersville, Ga.

Virginia (Cone) Russell is with Industrial Relations department, U. S. Naval Air Station, Key West, Fla.

Mallette (Crum) Cabero's husband is director of the bank in Hawkinsville, and has real estate and grocery store interests. Mallette is active in the Garden Club and D. A. R.

Dorothy (Griffin) Young has a teen age daughter and an eight year old son.

Minnie Lee (Herrington) Varner, her husband and two children of Darien spent the summer at Paul's home in Indian Springs.

Ruth (McMath) McKenzie's husband is a pilot for Eastern Air Lines. They have a daughter 13 and a son 8 years old.

Vivian (Majors) Bird lives now in Cocoa, Fla., her husband having been transferred to Patrick Air Force Base.

Sarah Myrt (Martin) Hawkins' husband is pastor of the First Methodist Church in Canton and she is an active worker in the church. Their children are: Ralph, Jr., Paul, Jack and Julia.

Pearl Phillips is teaching in Lithia Springs, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Ida Mae (Ryals) Allen in the death of her father in June.

Cornelia (Turner) Thornton is active in the Baptist church and in civic affairs in Cordele. She has four children, two daughters, Mayson and Neil, at Wesleyan.

Ling Nyi (Vee) Wang's children are David, 18 years old and quite a student, always "inventing" something, a senior at George Washington University, majoring in mechanical engineering; Daniel, 14, in the ninth grade a typical "American boy" whose favorite study is gym, captain of the baseball team, enjoys swimming and ice skating; and Judy, 11, just entering junior high school. Ling Nyi's husband is with the Chinese Embassy in Washington, D. C.

Estelle Walker works in Atlanta with the Highway Department of Georgia. She still keeps up her music.

Lorraine (Williams) Garrett writes: Margaret Bennett is still teaching in her home town, Moultrie. Eugenia (Hutto) Howard and her husband have moved into a new home in Augusta. Agnes (Kelley) Hardwick and her husband have moved from Atlanta to Myrtle Beach, S. C., where they have a motor court. They have a large living unit for themselves and their small son, born while his father was in Europe.

Margaret (Boyd) Whitnel has had Mary (Banks) Morcock and her two girls for a visit with her in Taylors, S. C., recently. Marguerite (Gunn) Mendinhall and her husband and children also stopped for a visit on their way to Georgia in July.

Elizabeth (Clark) Kennedy's husband is with the Cairo Motor Company. Their children are Elizabeth and Margaret.

Gladys (Coker) DeVoe works in a department store in Montezuma, plays for Kiwanis Club meetings, and is pianist for the Montezuma Funeral Home.

Sarah Mary (Culpepper) Edwards' husband is a building contractor, member of the firm of Culpepper and Edwards of Pelham. They have two children, Martha, 7; and Harvey Milton, 3.

Claudia (Davenport) Leonard's children are Peggy, Claudia, Alice and Sam, Jr..

Evelyn (Edwards) Owen has a new baby a few months old. Her other children are Tony, 20, and Ann, 12.

Mary (McDaniel) Hurst of Conyers is active in all worthwhile organizations of that town. She has a lovely teenage daughter and an adopted son seven years old.

Mabel (McLendon) Coney is welfare director for Pulaski County, Ga., and is president of a very active music club in Hawkinsville and director of the choir of the Baptist Church. Her husband is in the Studebaker company.

Cornelia (Merritt) Maddox's husband is in the dry goods business in Cuthbert with his father. Their sons are Bob, 11, and Walter, 8.

Anne (Morgan) Roobin's husband is a department store executive in Cordele. They have two children.

Frances (Rice) Warlick's husband is a Chevrolet Auto dealer in Cartersville. They have four children, two girls and two boys.

Marjorie Royal keeps house for her father since the death of her mother, Bertha (Pate) Royal, A.B. '02, and teaches in the public school in Cordele.

Margaret (Scarborough) Smith's husband is assistant manager of a company that publishes city directories. Although they travel a great deal, they call Sandersville, Ga., home. Their son, Lowry, Jr., is four years old.

Sympathy is extended to Wilhelmina Thompson in the death of her father recently. She teaches in Cordele and lives with her mother.

Rosa (Vickers) Boland of St. Simon's Island, Ga., has two children, a girl and a boy.

1932

Yona (Bell) Lott's husband is much improved after a long illness. They have two children, Sam, Jr., and Yona.

Mildred (Boothe) West's husband has been called back into the service.

Temperance (Burson) Lear is teacher of public school music in Camilla, is chairman of the State Piano Teachers' Association, and of the Second District Association.

Cora (Couch) Robinson's husband is mayor of Winder, Ga. They only son is John, aged 11 and is the sixth grade.

Lois (Daniel) Brandon's husband is superintendent of schools in Cartersville, and Lois teaches. They have three children, Katherine, Betty and Bill, Jr.

Edith (Darter) Hale lives in Bristol, Va. She writes: "I keep hoping to run into some of my classmates as I see from the magazine that there are several nearby. I am busy with two small daughters."

Dorothy (Fountain) Taylor is president of the Doerun WSCS. She and her husband are very proud of their four-year-old adopted son, Charlie.

Estelle (King) Collar takes an interest in club and library work in Austell, where she now lives.

Malene (Lee) Morgan is quite an asset to Newnan, where she and her husband have a country home. She is a member of the Reading Circle, and takes an active part in church and women's club work.

Sympathy is extended to Emaly (Lewis) Culpepper in the death by drowning of her brother in July. Emaly's husband is a lawyer in Camilla, and their children are: Helen, 13; Mary, 11; Emaly, 6; and Robert, 2.

Nannerle (Pearson) Thomson and her family will soon move into a new home in Ft. Valley. Her sons are Jimmy, 17; Gail, 14; and David, 3.

Lillian (Pafford) Tate's husband is opening a big, new Woolworth's Store in Mobile, Ala. Their two sons are Jimmy, 9, and Billy, 6.

Louise (Pittman) Peabody's parents celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary in July, having with them for the occasion their sons and daughter and the in-laws and grandchildren, as well as a host of friends.

Bernice (Walton) Hopkins has real estate interests in Cordele. She and her husband have one son.

1933

Marjorie (Andrews) Summerford's husband is in the warehouse business in Americus. They live in the country and have several children.

Ernestine Bledsoe received her M.A. degree about a year ago and taught during the past summer at the University of Georgia.

Martha (Bothwell) Hall's only son, Tom III, is now 14 years old.

Eunice (Brinson) Turner's husband is a hardware merchant in Pelham, where they are just completing a lovely new home. They have three children, Mose Wright III, Russell Scott, and Anna Rebecca. Eunice continues her interest in music, and is active in church work.

Bess (Duncan) Crittenden visited her Wesleyan roommate, Hermione (Warren) Lightfoot in Luverne, Ala., during the summer. They had not seen each other for 17 years, and had a wonderful time trying to "catch up." Bess' children are Betsy, 7, and Elmina, 1.

Virginia Ezzard teaches in the Lawrenceville High School.

Ida Ellis (Greene) Seig works with the Veterans' Service League in Canton, and is president of the Woman's Club there. She lost her husband during World War II. Her only son is L. O. Seig, Jr.

Emmie Louise (Harvey) Powell is organist for the Methodist church in Monticello, Ga. She has one son, Bobby, age 12.

Eloise (Noble) Schropshire and her husband have recently built a lovely home in Cartersville. They have two sons, George, Jr., and Noble.

Mary (Norman) Hamrick has an eight-year-old son, Bobby. She teaches in the junior high school in Cedartown, is superintendent of the Beginners' Department of the Sunday School and an active Junior Leaguer.

Norma (Smith) Edwards teaches English in the high school in Claxton. She has two daughters, Anne, ten, and Norma, five.

Virginia (Stanton) Eyler's husband is doing graduate work at Miami University in Florida.

1934

Anne (Bone) Evans of Milledgeville has one son, Frank, Jr., age 10.

Frances (Boyd) Wright, her husband and fifteen-year-old daughter, Dotty V., of Winder enjoyed a trip to Nassau in the summer.

Miriam (Cook) Wall is organist at the First Baptist Church and a director of the Community Concerts in Sandersville. She and her husband are quite active in civic affairs. Their son, "Ricky," entered school this fall.

Jeannette (Corbitt) Kelley's husband is a salesman for a fertilizer company, and they live in Monticello. They have three sons.

Sympathy is extended to Sybil (Edenfield) Gholson in the recent death of her husband, a druggist and owner of a drug store in Millen. Her daughters are Stephanie, 8, and Jo Allen, 2.

Marie (Hammond) Mitchell's husband is a doctor in LaGrange. Their children are Marie, Jack, Jr., and Rosalyn.

Lillian (Jones) Jefferson is organist of the Baptist Church in Cairo, Ga., and the mother of three small children. Her husband is employed by the Roddenberry Company.

Lois (Kilgore) Wortham is a member of the Garden Club, Music Club, Rotary Anns, and Presbyterian Church in Delray Beach, Fla.

Virginia (Milam) Jordan has a new son, Louis Collier, Jr., born August 9. Her daughter, Ida is 3½ years old.

Margaret (Miller) Glover is building a new home on Woodbine Drive in Newnan. Her husband is a lawyer, and they have two children.

Sarah Rymer teaches sixth grade in Canton public schools, and also gives private lessons in piano.

Elsie Gray (Sanchez) Tharpe has three sons, Bill, 12; Jerry, 9; and Jim, 6.

Frances (Towns) Craig of Selma, Ala., has three children, Lloyd, 15; Mary Camden, 10; and Albert, 3.

Charlotte (Tyus) Dekle's husband is a lawyer in Millen, and is cub master in the scouts. Charlotte renewed her Red Cross instructor's course in swimming and taught water safety courses during the summer. Their children are Clyde III, 12; William Ober, 10; and Charlotte, 6.

Maryella (Veatch) Perry teaches a Sunday School class and is the backbone of the P.T.A. in LaFayette, Ga. She has three children.

1935

Elizabeth (Baggarly) Phillips is teaching fifth grade in one of the schools of LaFayette, Ga., and is active in the Woman's Club and P.T.A. there. Her daughter, Lyn, is a piano student of Cleo (Colley) Love, '28.

Louise (Caldwell) Arnall and her husband have built a new home in Luthersville, Ga. They have one daughter, Jeane, 13, who is eagerly looking forward to coming to Wesleyan, and a son, Billy, Jr., 7.

Marianne Harris is one of the busiest people in Sandersville as president of the Spade and Trowel Garden Club, a Director of the Community Chest and of the Community Concerts.

Thalia (Johnson) Gooch's daughter, Thalia Ann, was a year old in August.

Elizabeth (Jordan) Davis and her son, Johnny, of Lumber City spent the summer at Savannah Beach.

Vernon (Keown) Bland's son, Jimmy, is in his last year in high school. He is quite talented in music, and won first place in the state contest in Milledgeville.

Vondelle (Kicklighter) Miles' husband is postmaster and has farming interests in Metter. They have two sons and one daughter.

Lena (McMath) Small's husband is a farmer, and they have two sons, Brown, Jr., and Bob.

Anne (Malone) Ballard of Monticello has four boys and one girl, the oldest 14, the youngest 8 months. Her husband is a frozen food distributor.

Evelyn (Mathews) Pound lives in Statesboro where her husband is in the gas business. They have one daughter and two little sons.

Carolyn (Moate) Fleming teaches 7th grade at Peabody School in Milledgeville. She has one son, Al, Jr., 13.

Elizabeth (Moseley) Wilson of Union Springs, Ala., runs an insurance agency and keeps books for family farming interests in addition to being the mother of a three-year-old daughter, Mary Booth.

Carolyn (Mundy) Shuman's husband is in the furniture business in Waynesboro. They have one little son.

Raynelle (Pearson) Edwards' two children are Elaine, II, and John, 9.

Helen (Sheffield) Morgan's three children keep her busy. Her husband is an instructor at the Americus Trade School.

Helen (Smith) Rogero has three children, Beverly, 12; Albert, 8; and Edith Marie, 6. Her husband is with the Prudential Insurance Company in Clearwater.

Helen (Snooks) Collins' husband is in the freezer locker business in Newnan. They have one little daughter.

Mary Ella (Wilkinson) Garrett of Milledgeville is president of the Peabody P.T.A. there.

1936

Halcyon (Alsup) Bell has three attractive daughters, Halcyon, 12; Mae, 10; and Bobbie, 4.

Carol (Anderson) Carter of Statesboro has a little son.

Elizabeth (Ballentine) Moody's husband is pastor of the Methodist church in Whitmire, S. C. They have a little daughter.

Alice Chastain works in Atlanta and shares an apartment with another girl from her home town, Montezuma.

Marie (Haley) Warren's husband is in the Coca-Cola business in Americus, and they have two little girls. Sympathy is extended to Marie, her sister, Jane (Haley) Moseley, A.B. '46, and their brother, Herbert Haley, Wesleyan trustee, in the death of their father in the summer.

Laura Ashley (Harris) Evans' husband is a lawyer and judge of the city court in Sandersville. Their little daughter, Marianne, was three years old October 31.

Elah (Holliday) Tucker and her husband are building a home in Sandersville. Elah is gracious with her talents in speech, and is in great demand for programs. Their little daughter, Gail, is five years old this fall.

Nida (McGehee) Ferrell's husband is practicing medicine in Macon, having moved from Dublin.

Sympathy is extended to Mary Ethel (McLean) Napier, '31, and to Dorothy McLean, '41, in the death of their father in Lumber City in May. Mary Ethel is living in Lumber City now, having moved from Spartanburg, S. C.

Ruth (Mahone) Harris of Tallapoosa adopted a little girl last year, named Martha Ruth. She is now nineteen months old.

Mary Ann (Peacock) Powell is teaching speech and writing for the newspaper in Blakely, Ga., in addition to taking care of a home and three children.

Alice (Ray) Stebbins of Darien teaches in the schools there. Her husband owns and operates a grocery store, and they live in the old Stebbins home which Alice has redecorated beautifully.

Mary Tom (Rochester) Henderson of Lawrenceville has two boys, Lannie and Jim, and a little daughter, Tommie.

Mary Katherine (Sineath) Owens and her husband have a mango farm in Florida, south of Miami.

Frances (Stodghill) Atwater's husband is manager of a newly organized bank in Cartersville. They have two children, a boy and a girl.

Nelle (Wilson) Jordan teaches first and second grades in Marshallville, and her husband is in the electrical business. Their daughter, Betty, is in the eighth grade this year.

Frances (Wood) Maffett has two little daughters, the older being quite musical.

1937

Loula (Calloway) Albright has a lovely home in LaGrange, Ga. Her three sons are Phil, Robbie and Allan.

Parkie (Culpepper) Lee's husband is pharmacist and part owner of a drug store in Newnan. They have two boys and a pretty little girl.

Geraldine (Dorsey) Culpepper's husband is a dairyman, farmer, and pecan grower in Cordele. They have a lovely new home in the suburbs. Their two children are Kay and Gail.

Mildred (Drake) Herndon has a fine young son about a year old, Edward.

Thena Holt (Evans) Best's husband is manager of the Butane Gas Co., in Sandersville. They have their third child, a son, born in the spring.

Anne (Griffin) Gatewood's four small children keep her busy, Betty Ann, Schley, Jr., Constance Grace and Harriet. Anne's husband is a physician in Americus.

Sara (Harrell) Johnson's daughter, Nancy Elaine, was born May 21.

Marinelle (Montgomery) Barker lives in Rock Hill, S. C. Her children are: Annamay, 13; Maynard, Jr., 11; Brenda Gail, 4; and James ("Monty") several months old.

Esther (Northern) Larsen's husband has a farm 12 miles from Cochran. Their three children are Jens, Jane and Fred, the oldest started to school this fall.

Jane (Patten) Sammons and her husband are building a new home in Shirley Hills, Macon. Their children are Sandra and Jackie.

Mary (Ray) Robinson's husband is studying medicine at Emory. They have two little girls, Ellen, 4, and Rebecca, 16 months.

Miriam (Smith) Boyette lives in Albany, Ga. She has a little adopted son.

Mary Tanner teaches art in Columbus, Ga.

Frances (Townsend) Skinner and her husband have adopted a five-weeks-old daughter, Sarah Townsend.

Helen (Wheeler) Zook of Ft. Valley has a two-year-old son.

Katherine (Wink) Fincher's husband is in the drug business in Canton with his father. Their children are Jack C. Jr., and John Herman.

Martha Holt (Wright) Williams teaches in the public school in Ft. Valley. Her son, Bill Wright, is in the third grade.

1938

Martha (Comolli) Martin teaches in the Elberton public schools.

Margaret (Dixon) Michaelson, her husband and three-year-old son, Mark, have moved to Macon after living for a number of years in New Hampshire. Their address is 3711 Forsyth Road.

Deaver (Hamrick) Cook's husband is studying medicine in Maryland, and they have a fine young son.

Mary Lois (Hitch) Felton has a daughter and two sons. She takes an active interest in the Methodist Church, Music Lovers' Club, and P.T.A. in Montezuma.

Caroline (Nunn) Brown has a lovely home in Perry and three interesting children, Larry, 9, George, 7, and Jan, 5. Her husband, the son of Coralie (Scroggs) Brown, '98, operates a veneer mill, is superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School, and president of the Jay Cees.

Virginia (Percy) Jones lives in Canton, where her husband is in the insurance business. They have one child, Paul W., III. Virginia is active in the church, the Trayleedah Garden Club, and the Service League.

Mary Virginia (Peters) Taylor's husband is a pharmacist in Manchester, Ga. (By an odd coincidence her cousin, Sara Frances (Peters) Mudter also married a druggist and they live across the street from each other.) Mary Virginia's children are Virginia, 8, and Caroline, 7.

Margaret (Turner) Beaty's 3½-year-old son is the hub of her activity, and the dairy she and her husband have keeps her busy, but she says she is highly satisfied—"a sign of approaching senility, I am sure. I have much in common with the author of 'How to Guess Your Age'; I'm convinced they aren't making size 14 dresses as big as they used to!"

The sudden death of Lillian (Touchstone) Jones shocked and grieved all of her Wesleyan friends. This tribute was written by Miss Ida Belle Williams of Douglas, Ga., who taught Lillian in high school.

Evaluated by achievement, not by years,

Lillian Touchstone Jones (Mrs. R. E. Jones), who died last August at the age of thirty-three years, had lived long. Her life was a continual process of achievement. From her early public school days through her college experiences she was a delight to schoolmates and faculty, for in addition to maintaining a high scholastic average, Lillian spiritedly participated in various worthwhile extra activities.

Among her many achievements during her Tifton High School days were her part in winning the debate in a district contest and her contribution on the night of graduation to the program, which marked an epoch in the Tifton High School and helped make history for the institution. This program was dedicated to Harry Stillwell Edwards, who as class honoree sat on the stage with the class. Lillian, an honor graduate, gave the history of Edwards's life.

This introduction to the famous author was a lasting inspiration to Lillian, who later while studying at Wesleyan College came in contact with him frequently as a guest in his home.

As a student at Wesleyan College she made an excellent extra-activity and scholastic record. The 1938 Veterropt, of which she was editor, gives the following record: Soccer, first, second, third and fourth years; basketball, first, second, third, and fourth; stunt, second year; Dramatic Club, first, second, third and fourth; Glee Club, first, second, and third; Biblical Literature Club, first, second; Watchtower staff, first, second, third; managing editor of Veterropt 1937; Macon News Correspondent, fourth year; included in "Who's Who Among American College and University Students, senior year; most stylish, fourth year; editor-in-chief of Veterropt, fourth year; President's Council, fourth year.

The climax of her work at Wesleyan College was reached in the beautiful 1938 volume of the Veterropt, the college annual. Harry Stillwell Edwards in an Atlanta Journal article paid her workmanship a high tribute: "If to do a thing better than others is an evidence of talent, and to accomplish the impossible is proof of genius, then this charming young woman is a genius. The theme story of Miss Touchstone's volume is 'Eneas Africanus'."

The story of "Eneas Africanus" was read by a classmate on the evening Lillian was graduated from high school in 1934. No doubt the story challenged Lillian's attention that night and made a lasting impression which she later wove into a design for the college annual.

After making a high record at Wesleyan and receiving an A.B. degree with English as her major, Lillian returned to Tifton to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Touchstone.

The intense energy which had been exhibited in school and college work was then turned to the community. Lillian joined the Youth Division of the Twentieth Century Library Club and served as president, concentrating her attention upon public health. The excellent clinic in connection with the health center now ranks among the first in the state. This rank itself is a memorial to the assiduous efforts of Lillian, who would often go in her own car to the most humble, obscure places to bring mothers, white and black, with their babies to the clinic for examination. Poverty of families made no difference to Lillian, who would appeal to friends for aid and receive a response.

This efficient work attracted the attention of the first county health officer, Dr. R. E. Jones, and this interest developed into an romance, which culminated in a wedding the fall of 1938. A few years later a boy, Robert Junior, then a girl, Mary Ensign, were born in Tifton.

During World War II while Dr. Jones was overseas serving his country, Lillian was exhibiting her patriotism at home. She worked with the Red Cross, hospital, and in other places that needed her services.

Recognizing her ability, the city appointed her secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, a position she filled effectively until her husband returned.

Lillian then transferred her membership from the Junior Woman's Club to the Senior Woman's Club and continued activities in civic improvements. At the time of her death she was serving as corresponding secretary of the Woman's Club. She was also president of the local Medical Auxiliary and vice-president of the Second District Medical Auxiliary. One of her friends said, "Those of us who were close to the inner circles of our state work knew that she was slated to soon become the state president."

In addition to these activities she helped with the Parent-Teacher Association and was one of the sponsors of the midget football team.

Old and young, white and colored, appreciated and loved Lillian. She was a benefactor to the underprivileged, white and black, who with numerous others grieve over her untimely death. "To live in the hearts of those we leave behind is not to die." Memory of her charming personality, her gracious gestures, her services to her community, and her varied charity twines around our hearts like a blossoming vine, shedding fragrance from its perfumed flowers.

1939

Bertie (Bigelman) Long's husband has just completed his work on his Ph.D. in English at the University of Florida, and began this fall as associate professor of English at Morehead State College in Kentucky.

Frances (Brown) Davis' husband farms and also teaches a class of veterans in Warrenton. They have a daughter, Saralyn, 4, and a son, Walker, 2.

Mary Louise (Cordes) Kelley is teaching in Lithonia High School.

Barbara (Davis) Morgan of Covington, Ga., has two children, a daughter 3 and a son, 1.

Margaret (Edge) Batts of Doerun has a second son, Stephen Edge, born August 24. Her older son, Dave, is 5½. Mary (Lowe) Brown of Moultrie, Margaret's classmate, wrote that she was coming to see the baby. She has three children herself. Margaret has also heard recently from Jean (McKee) Adams of Jacksonville Beach, Fla.

Virginia (McDowell) Dover's husband is an obstetrician in Athens, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Joyce (Rakestraw) Jackson of LaGrange in the death of her four-year-old son, Steve, in May. She has a baby daughter, Libba.

1940

Alfred Merle (Dorman) Sauve, her husband and little son, Alf, have been in Macon for some time while her husband takes a business course before going into the wholesale grocery business with Merle's father.

Mary Ethel (Gerdine) Bitting's husband is a druggist in Ocala, Fla., and they have a daughter, Martha Lynne, age 7. Mary Ethel served as chairman of Public Affairs for the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs.

Margery (Ploeger) Green and her husband and children are living in Waynesboro where he operates a vegetable canning plant.

Marjorie (Potts) Durden and her husband have recently moved into a new home in Columbus, and Marjorie says she has personally laid a brick wall, even mixing her own cement. (She doesn't recommend it for the back or the hands!) She is program chairman for the Wesleyan alumnae club of Columbus.

Frances Richardson has been working in Washington, D. C., for several years.

Elsa (Stig) Snyder of Clearwater, Fla., has a 15-months-old daughter, Mollie Hubbard. Her husband is a contractor, specializing in beautiful apartment units, and Elsa is on the Board of Directors of the Community Concert Assn., and of the Y. W. C. A.

Fred (Turpin) Hogg has two daughters,

Charlene and Frances. Her husband is interested in scout work and accompanied seven boys from his troop in Americus to the national Scout Jamboree in the summer.

Frances (Williams) Jordan and her husband have a lovely home in Cordele. They have two children.

Margaret (Williford) Lewis teaches piano in Cairo. She has two boys, Larry, 9; and Hugh, 6.

1941

Martha (Balkcom) Clark's little daughter was born July 2. The baby's grandmother is Martha (Howard) Balkcom, 1912.

Margaret (Brantley) Read's husband is a dentist in Athens. She teaches at Chase Street School, and sings in the choir at the Baptist Church.

Freida (Brown) McMath's husband is in the farm implement business, and is quite a golf enthusiast. They have three little daughters, Nancy, Sally, and Freida.

Josephine (Dunlap) Wilson of Athens is the mother of three children. She is active in Junior Assembly work.

Jeannette (Harris) Morgan writes: "Weezie (Turner) Butler is as enthusiastic as I am about our class reunion this year. I hope that everybody can be there! We are in New Orleans until June where James is chief resident in the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat hospital. Jimmy started to school this year.

Pat (Jarratt) Abkarian and her little daughter, Johanna, of Mexico City spent the summer with Pat's mother and sister, Dorothea, in Macon.

Margaret (Lewis) Sanders of Commerce, Ga., has a little son about two years old. She has developed a lovely soprano voice.

Lillian (Mann) Jauquet of San Antonio, Texas, joyfully writes to announce the news that she and her husband have adopted a daughter, two weeks old when they took her in July, Madeleine Mann. Lillian says that during recent months she has discovered three Wesleyannes living in San Antonio: Annette (Emerson) Loyd, '47; Lelia (Aiken) Tenney, A.B. '41; and Inez (Ward) Wright, '32.

Catherine (Pate) Goode of Hawkinsville spends most of her time with her two little girls, Martha, 7, and Peggy, 4, whom she plans to send to Wesleyan some day. Her husband is manager of the Chevrolet company. The Goodes are building a new home. Peggy and Lina (Jones) Arnold's little boy, Tom, play together.

Ida Long Rogers, who has been for the past three years Registrar of William and Mary V.P.I. in Norfolk, began a year's leave of absence in June. She spent the summer in Europe and is now completing work on her M.A. degree at Peabody College, holding a graduate assistantship.

Shortly after hostilities broke out in Korea a newspaper notice stated that Isabel Rutherford of Culloden, attache of the U. S. State Department in Seoul, Korea, had escaped from the war area and was safe in Tokyo, Japan.

Mary (Stallings) Westrup's husband is a Lieutenant-Commander in the regular Navy, and they are in Connecticut at present. Their children are Warren and Patricia.

Mary (Thomas) Evans' husband and his father own two drug stores in Warrenton, and he serves as pharmacist in one of them. Mary has two children, Sally, 3, and Charles, III, one.

Winnette (Turner) Holt, her army officer husband, and three children (a five-year-old daughter five years old and twin sons one year old) have returned to the states after two years in Japan, and are living in Washington, D. C.

Mildred (Wagon) Davis has a daughter and third child, born in May.

Mary Helen (Walker) Moon and her doctor husband of Harlem, Ga., have three attractive little daughters, the oldest in school. Mary Helen is president of the Harlem P.T.A.

Amelia (Weatherly) Greene and her family (two small sons, Warren and William recently moved into a new home in Ft. Valley, Ga.

1942

A Group of 1942 Alumnae at Their Reunion at Commencement

(This picture was made at the Idle Hour Club, at a party which Rebecca (Griffin) Barton gave.) Left to right, front row: Rebecca (Griffin) Barton, Bettye (Withers) Barnes, Martha (Woolbright) Millirons, Margaret (Smith) Carruth, Martha (Aiken) Pendergrast. Second row: Ruth Hill Reid, Virginia (Powell) Ferrell, Virginia (Broome) Waterer, Mary Stewart (Becking) Smith, Frances (Barnes) Grant, Emily (Whitaker) Vickers.

Mildred (Fincher) Efland and her husband had a delightful trip to Canada in August. She says it was a delayed "honeymoon" as they were married during the war and took separate trips then—he to Honolulu and she to teach. They are now remodeling their home in Efland, N. C.

Rebecca (Griffin) Barton says that attending the reunion of '42 was one of the pleasantest experiences she has ever had. Rebecca was a patient last year at Deaconess Hospital in Boston, Mass., and was quite surprised one morning when she discovered that the person from the lab was her classmate, Esther (Williams) Thompson. Esther and her husband were buying a home in Boston. They have one little boy.

Emily (Hearn) Webb's husband is serving his fourth year as pastor of the Methodist church in Cuthbert. Their sons are Tony, 3½, and Larry, 6 months. They recently went to New Providence, N. J., to visit Sarah (Webb) Bryan, '41, and her husband who is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church there. They were accompanied by Mary Frances (Webb) Nall, '45, and her husband.

Sara Frances (Peters) Mudter's husband is a pharmacist in Manchester. Their children are Pattie, 6, and George, Jr., 3. They have recently built a new home.

Carolyn (Pharr) Henry and her young son live in Talbotton. Carolyn is clerk of the Draft Boards of Meriwether and Talbot Counties.

Margaret Gertrude Smith is now Mrs. Frank Lancaster, 2007 St. Stephen's Rd., Mobile, Ala. She teaches and her husband works at Brookley Field, and they have just bought a new home.

1943

Edith (Askew) Johnson has three small children, a boy and two little girls.

Mary (Dozier) Palotta has opened her office for the practice of law in Atlanta. She will specialize in domestic problems.

Marjorie (Key) Lawrence's son, Stephen Thomas, was born July 11. Her little daughter, Valerie, is a little red-head and the apple of grandmother Marjorie (Gugel) Key's eye.

Lilly (Lake) Stephenson has a son, born May 27, by the Yale method of "natural childbirth." Lilly and her family will make their home in Augusta this fall.

Dene (McNatt) Barfield and her husband live in Macon where Everett is interned at the Macon Hospital.

Mattie Lee Mullis spends her days trying to keep the patients at Dublin Naval Hospital entertained.

Betty (Liipfert) Hewes' husband is with Delta Air Lines, and they moved to College Park in September. Their children are Homer, David, and a new daughter, Pamela.

Evelyn Pope teaches at Dominican College, New Orleans, La.

Jane (Shearouse) Metts and her family are in their new home in Dublin, and they have a second child and first son. Douglas Carl, born September 2.

1944

Betty (Batcheller) Brown lives in Miami. Her daughters are Ellenwood, 4, and Alison, 4 months.

Stella (Cater) Beaty's husband, Harold Beaty, who has been in radio work in Macon for several years since his return from the armed forces, made his decision to go into the ministry this spring and the family moved to Decatur in September when Harold entered Candler School of Theology at Emory. They have two small daughters, Stella and Louise. They were active in the work of Mulberry Street church, where Harold sang in the choir and led the singing for the evening services.

Dorothy (Daley) Kirschbaum writes that she has two daughters, Susan, 3½, and Barbara, born November 13th, 1949. Barby was a "Read Method" baby—very exciting, says Dot! Her husband is still Assistant Professor of electrical engineering at Ohio State University, and began work on his Ph.D. degree in the summer.

Suzanne (Davis) Hardee and their twins expect soon to move into a new home in Fernandina.

Martha (Harrison) Middlebrooks has a daughter, Jane Lacy, who is to be called "Lacy".

Nell (McGehee) Mathis' husband is from a family of Wesleyans. His mother was Lois McMath, '20; his sister, Lois Mathis, '51; his cousins Martha (White) Cliett, '43 and Ann (McMath) Roy, '49. Evan is a blimp pilot at Glynco, where Nell held a position as secretary to the commanding officer of the Naval Air Facility. Nell's family are Wesleyans, too: Fannie McGehee, '32, Nida (McGehee) Ferrell, '36, and Louise (McGehee) Frank, '47 are her sisters.

Jo Banks McKay writes that she "pulled up stakes" in New York the latter part of May and has been visiting friends and relatives in various parts of the country since that time. She is now in San Francisco, which she says is to be her new home for a while, and she finds the rolling fog, the cable cars, and the beautiful view of the surrounding bay fascinating.

Dotte (Smith) Mahon and her family have moved into a new home in Louisville, Ky., 3917 Fairy Drive.

Sympathy is extended to Mary (Smith) Starr of Savannah and her husband in the death of their infant son, Lawrence Manoe, September 4.

Sally Veatch is a member of the resident company of Rabbit Run Theater in Madison, Ohio, which had its fifth season of summer stock this summer with a new play opening each week. Sally has the A.B. and B.F.A. degrees from Wesleyan and the M.A. in speech correction from Columbia University.

Emily (Winslow) Simpson's husband, studying law at Emory, has recently passed the state bar examinations.

1945

Marianne (Arnold) Sapp's husband has recently accepted a new job with the Guaranty Bank and Trust Co., of Florence, S. C., and they moved there from Elberton in June.

Louise (Avera) Peterson has her degree in pharmacy from the University of Georgia, and helps in her father's drug store in Ft. Valley.

Edith (Batcheller) Hazlehurst and her doctor husband have two daughters, Virginia, 2½ and Elizabeth, 5 months. They live in Spottswood, N. J.

Mae Sue (Carrington) McKay and her family live in Charleston, S. C. She has a daughter four years old and two boys, one three years old, one born in August.

Tommie (Daniel) Gammon's husband is interning in Tacoma, Washington, having received his M.D. degree at Boulder, Colorado in June. They have two children, a girl not quite two and a baby son.

Rena (Durden) Bowman of Ft. Valley and her husband are building a new home. They have a year-old daughter, "Lee".

Kathryn (Griffis) Poppell's husband is a captain with the air forces in Korea, and Kathry is for the present with her parents in Homerville, Ga.

Virginia (Harris) Howard and her husband live in Elizabeth, La., where he is engineer with a paper company. They have two children, Virginia Ann, who will be 3 in February, and "Andy", nine months.

Elizabeth Hearn is assistant information officer at the U. S. Embassy in London, England. For the past three years she has served as news editor in the overseas press section of the State Department in Washington.

Dorothy (Herndon) Arnold's husband is a surgical resident at Union Memorial Hospital in Baltimore, Md., and they have a daughter, Janet, born in August.

Eleanor (Hoyt) Dabney, her husband, and little son spent three months recently in a trailer when their home in Atlanta was condemned for a new highway and before their new home was built. She writes: "After two weeks we got electricity in the trailer and a faucet in the yard for water, so you can imagine the camping we did. It was hard on John and me, but Johnny (21 months) loved it. We finally got into our house the first of August and are beginning to feel like human beings again.

"Bettye (Melton) Paden has a daughter Johnny's age, so we get together often. Dot Lachmund visited Bettye this summer and they spent one day with me. Bettye and Bob have a new house on Bucher Street in Decatur.

"Carolyn (Clark) Jackson has a new son, Ralph III.

"Jean (Mitchell) Denney has a daughter, Barbara Cope, born in August, as was Carolyn's son, too.

"There were lots of Wesleyannes at Eva Spence's wedding in July. Mildred Collins was one of Eva's attendants and caught the bride's bouquet. Mildred has a short haircut and looked grand. Being in New York as a career girl agrees with her.

"Hans (the groom) is quite handsome and has the nicest accent. He and Eva are going to live in New York, but hope to come down Christmas for a visit.

"Also at the wedding were Mary Frances (Webb) Nall (she and her husband are living in Tucker, Ga., and are planning to raise shepherd puppies); Tracy Horton, and Jane (Epps) Henry.

"Jane (Methvin) Jones, Tom and Patty have bought a new home in Decatur."

Ann (Hubbard) Cook is president of the Junior League in Newnan. She has two children.

Helene (Jones) Swartz has a second daughter and Wesleyan prospect, Pamela Helene, born July 8.

Jane Jordan makes her home with her aunt in Lumber City.

Faye (Manuel) Emerson lives now in Clearwater, Fla., where her husband is a contractor. They have two children, Donna Leigh, 4; and John Crosby, III, 6 months.

Sympathy is extended to Jane (Methvin) Jones in the death of her mother in Atlanta in August.

Ann Poitevint is a registered laboratory technician now with Crawford W. Long Hospital in Atlanta. Last summer she toured Europe with five congenial friends.

Mary Eva (Ray) Flanders' husband is associated with the Knox Corporation in Thomson, a lumber concern engaged in putting out prefabricated houses. Mary Eva's little daughter, Deane, takes up most of her time.

Betty (Williams) Pope has a son, Mark Cooper IV, born August 7.

1946

Maryelle (Arnold) Burnett writes: "You can erase all those changes of address for me, for we now have our new home, 3133 Summit Ave., St. Joseph, Mo. It has roses around the front door, and lots of space all around—and best of all —it's ours! Our daughter, Debbie, had her first birthday in July. She has dark reddish-brown curly hair and blue eyes. She walks and says quite a few words and she keeps me stepping and laughing."

Sarah (Bacon) Hammond teaches in the Doerun High School. She and her husband have a year-old daughter, Sarah Lynn.

Sally (Balkcom) Bevard has a second son, Charles Howard, born in the summer.

Sympathy is extended to Laura Margaret (Brady) Godbee in the sudden death of her father recently. Her husband teaches in Statesboro High School, and they have two small boys.

Sarah (Clary) Kennedy's husband completed a course in pharmacy at the University of Georgia in June and they are now living in Savannah where he has a position with the Knight Drug Co. They have a little daughter, Elizabeth Anne, born June 12.

Helen (Davis) Shelnutt lives in Allentown, Ga., where her husband is a lumberman and they have just moved into a new home. They have one little son, James Carlton.

Nan (Futch) Watt and her husband live in Montgomery, Ala.

Minor (Herndon) Mickel and little Minor have been in Germany where Buck is stationed with the army.

Rosalyn (Lane) McMurray's son, Jim, will be two in January. She is on the list of substitute teachers in Roanoke, Ala., and often takes a day off from housekeeping to teach in the local high school.

Virginia (Larsen) Tinker's husband, a graduate of Georgia Tech, is with Economy Home Builders, building Knox homes. Virginia is teaching again at Sylvan Hills Elementary School in Atlanta.

Emily (Mallard) Acree's husband is studying veterinary medicine, and Emily is at home in Jacksonville at present.

Louise (Pate) Skene writes in October: "My parents, my husband and I drove to New York to take Mary to Columbia, and our week there turned out to be almost a Wesleyan alumnae meeting. Ran into Bo Hi Yun, who is working in a Chinese restaurant near Columbia. Saw Gloria Euyang and Leonora Kwok in Saks, and Gloria told me that her sister, Mary, Mary's baby, and all the family are now in N. Y. The two girls were shopping for Leonora's trousseau, for she was to be married on October 1.

"Later we were walking near the Metropolitan Opera House when Allene Hall walked out. She had five-minute break from a Hammerstein Chorus rehearsal. The chorus was to give a benefit performance that night for the Bank Presidents' Convention. Allene told us that Evelyn McGarrity was inside listening to a rehearsal, so we joined her and she showed us around and seated us to hear the rehearsal. Both girls seem to be happy, and both are to sing this winter in the choir of a Park Avenue Church."

Mary Love (Patterson) Avriett, whose husband is a registered pharmacist working with his father in their drug store, is teaching in the high school in Homerville, Ga.

Helen (Proctor) Morris and little daughter are at Ft. Hood, Texas, where Helen's husband is stationed in the regular army.

Adelaide (Wallace) Ponder and her husband plan soon to build a home in Madison. They have a little daughter, Anne Douglas. Adelaide married a nephew of Frances (Graham) Goff, '10, of Ft. Valley.

Marianne (Whitehurst) Biglin and her husband and small daughter are living now in Oregon, which was his former home. He was in the service in World War II, and stationed at Statesboro's airport.

Dorothy Jane Wilson is studying child welfare and public speaking at Columbia University.

1947

Denise (Auld) Meadows has a baby, Diana Auld, born August 29. Denise's husband, a captain and surgeon in the medical corps, was sent overseas to Japan just three weeks before the baby's premature birth. Little Diana, who weighed 3½ pounds at birth, was rushed to Macon by ambulance, where Joyce Miller kept up with her progress and telephoned Denise at the hospital in Vidalia and the husband in Japan. Little Diana is gaining steadily now.

Virginia (Bell) Parker and her husband have just completed a new home in Sandersville, where he is in the jewelry business. Their daughter, Linda, was born August 22.

Sally Bowen is a popular teacher in Newnan, and is president of the Newnan Educational Association and a leader of Presbyterian Young People.

Anne (Carlton) Blanchard with her husband and baby son, Richard, have moved to Orlando, Fla., where Dick is associate pastor of the First Methodist Church. Anne recently ran into Velma (Fields) Price, who also lives in Orlando. "Boots" has a son, David, almost a year old.

Elizabeth (Davidson) Gentry has two little girls, Vicki and Nina. She is living in Lithonia, Ga.

Carolyn (Fuller) Cunningham of Newnan has a young daughter.

Carolyn Hall has a position with the Red Cross in Columbus, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Mary Alice (McDougall) Woodson in the death of her father, Dr. William L. McDougall, in July.

Louise (McGehee) Frank's husband has opened his law office in Houston, Texas. They have a young son, Ed III.

Gloria (Poitevint) Adams' husband practices medicine in Kingsport, Tenn. They have a daughter, Norma Ann, born January 10.

Patricia (Primrose) Bush's husband is a veterinarian in Cordele, Ga.

Betty (Shipp) Anderson's young son, Murray, Jr., is about seven months old.

Mary (Spenser) Uhl of Langdale, Ala., has a little red-haired daughter.

Betty Thompson has a job with the Department of News Service of the Methodist Board of Home Missions, with headquarters in New York City. Betty shares an apartment in the Village with a friend who was with her at Kenyon College.

Gloria (Thornton) Orr has a son, William Wood, Jr., born August 11 in Washington, D. C., where Dr. Orr is chief resident physician at Children's Hospital.

Mary (White) Ware sends news of some of her Wesleyan friends: "Frances (Kelsey) Deshong's little daughter, Shella, is a beautiful child. They have a new home in Ft. Myers.

"Helen (Mathews) Harding's husband is a lieutenant in the navy, and they are now in Newport, R. I.

"I saw Georgann (Dessau) Blum and her little daughter, Stella, recently. Georgann is busy being a wonderful mother. Her husband is a champion golfer.

"Betty Ann (McDonald) Bowen is building a new home in Tifton. Rosa Schofield recently visited them. Rosa and Marilyn Mathews often play golf together.

"I hear from Jerry (Farrar) Thomas and she and 'Junie' are still living in Griffin. Peggy (Askew) Coachman has recently married a charming doctor in Columbus, Ga.

"Jean (Bosman) Tuttle has a son, William. She and her husband were in Jacksonville in the summer. He is in school in Hartford, Conn., this fall, studying for the ministry."

Betty (Whitehead) Sweeney's husband is Lt. Commander on the U. S. S. George No. 697. They lived for some months in Honolulu after their marriage, but Betty and her little daughter, Sally Sereny are now in San Diego, Calif., at 3549 Wilcox street.

1948

Hattie Black Baker is teaching in Columbus, at Baker Village School.

Helen Beam is teaching at Mocksville, N. C. She attended summer school at the University of N. C.

Betty Buzzell, whose address is now c/o Old Soldiers' Home, Bennington, Vt., writes: "I wish that this check for the Loyalty Fund could be $50.00! Way up here in rural New England we've had several Wesleyan get-togethers. Janey (Lewis) Marin-Foucher, Jean (Henninger) Hatch, Lois (Goldman) Cowan, and Liz Hean have either visited here or met me in New York this summer, and Liz arrived here Sept. 9 from Europe en route home via Quebec and Bennington. I've been home this summer helping mother care for Dad who was in a serious auto accident while going to Ft. Totten, N. Y. He is now at Walter Reed Hospital, and we hope to drive down and see him and also my brother, Bill, who is at Ft. Benning."

Leonabeth (Collins) Penn is teaching music in Monticello High school.

One of the Recent Graduates Writes:

"I have just opened my bank account, and I want my very first check to go to Wesleyan. I can never do enough to repay Wesleyan and its teachers for what they have done for me, and I wish every girl who goes to college could have the same glorious experience that was mine! Although I have not been able previously to contribute financially, I have 'campaigned' unofficially wherever I could. Last fall one of the freshmen with whom I had talked at Camp Glisson came up to me and said, 'Thank you for persuading me to come to Wesleyan. I love it!'"

Virginia (Durden) Toole has an interesting time traveling far and wide with her husband, who sells beautician's supplies.

Ruth (Futch) Hargrave lives in Winter Haven, Fla., where her husband teaches vocational agriculture. They have a son, Robert Irvin, born May 16.

Betty Jo (Hogan) Cook writes that Dottie Ann Smith is now assistant in the Youth Activities Department at Rich's, and Jean Armstrong, '52, was on the college board at Rich's.

Barbara (Kemp) Millsap's husband is practicing law in Evergreen, Ala. They have a daughter, Temple Anne, born June 13, 1949.

Will Klump, managing director of Rabbit Run Theatre in Madison, Ohio, is this fall in Jacksonville, Fla., where he is working in the Penthouse Theatre for the season. Will and Maynard Samsen of the Wesleyan faculty, organized Rabbit Run Theatre on the Klump farm in 1946, and it will open its sixth season in June, 1951.

Julianne (McDaniel) Perry has a daughter, Katherine Elizabeth, born September 10.

Betty (Matthews) Parker is teaching a section of the third grade in Hawkinsville again this year.

Margaret (Moffett) Jones' husband graduated from Auburn in August, and they are now living in Griffin, Ga.

Edaleen (Morgan) Bush's husband is a chemical engineer with the DuPont Company, now stationed in Camden, S. C. Edaleen is studying music again in addition to keeping house.

Marilyn (Parker) Bussey lives in Steilacoom, Washington. She has a daughter, Carol Ann, born November 22, 1949.

Bettyline Pope is now Mrs. Jack Moylan, and lives in Walterboro, S. C.

Betty (Rogers) Manning and her husband are enthusiastic about their farm, "Timberlea," near Sandersville.

Louise Stanley received the B. S. in library science at Peabody College in the summer.

Marianne (Sutton) Williams lives in Atlanta, and has a young son, Ken.

Bess Talbert has a position with the Calloway Beacon, newspaper of the Calloway Mills in LaGrange.

Martha (Tigner) Key has a son, William Tigner, born September 26.

Anne (Vinson) Nolan has been a graduate assistant in zoology at the University of North Carolina since her graduation from Wesleyan, and in June received her M.A. from the university and was married to Dr. Jerre L. Noland, research biochemist at Army Chemical Center in Edgewood, Md. When she wrote in late August they were living in an apartment near the base, but were planning to get a house in the country with 49 acres of farm, some of it in woods and bluegrass pasture.

Betty (Waas) Davis still finds time to keep up her art and serve on the art committee of the Fernandina Woman's Club. She has a lovely baby daughter.

Sympathy is extended to Alice Wasden in the death of her father of a heart attack on July 20. Alice was abroad at the time. Alice now has her own radio program over WTOG, Savannah, representing Belk-Matthews. She uses the name Alice Carr.

Anne Whipple, who did graduate work at Northwestern during the summer, came by the Rivoli campus for a brief visit in the summer. She is again at Shorter College as a member of the speech faculty.

Marie (Wilson) Turner has a daughter, Deborah Wilson, born August 17 in Charlottesville, Va.

1949

Jane (Burnett) Sleamaker's husband is pastor of a Methodist church in Griffin while attending Emory School of Theology. They have a baby daughter, Suellen.

Peggy Carswell spent the summer at Florida State University where she began work on her M.A. in physical education. While there she had to interview the Girl Scout director of Tallahassee, and discovered that person to be Clifton Wight, A.B. '46, whom she had not seen since her freshman year at Wesleyan. Peggy is teaching in Lakeview High School in Winter Garden, Fla.

Nancy (Claymore) Watson's son, William Augustin IV, was born July 30. The baby is Vera (Nottingham) Watson's grandson.

Elizabeth (Cook) Smith and her husband live in Statesboro, where they have a new home and a new baby.

Ann (DeBeaugrine) Shivers' husband is a farmer in Norwood. They have recently started building a new home. They have one little boy, Charles, a year old.

Gloria Dixon is studying medicine in Augusta.

Betty Carolyn (Edge) Flowers of Doerun has a beautiful little girl, Carol.

Abbie Gillespie is in her second year of teaching in Cochran, Ga.

Jerrye (Griffith) Short teaches first grade in Winder.

Ann (Hardwick) Reddick's husband is studying for the ministry, and Ann is teaching in the county school in Cairo, Ga.

Elizabeth Hean had a delightful trip to Europe in the summer. Jean (Henninger) Hatch and Lois (Goldman) Cowan joined the friends in New York who were seeing her off, and Elizabeth Buzzell met her on her return in September.

A letter from Georgiana Hseuh to Dr. Silas Johnson came in late August from 147-36 77th Ave., Flushing, N. Y., saying: "Enclosed is my check which I gladly pledged for my dear Alma Mater. My past year at Smith College has been meaningful, and as much as I am sold on Smith my loyalty to Wesleyan is unaltered. Mary Euyang came to the states a month ago and is now working in ECA at Washington, D. C. Gloria Euyang, Jane Woo, and Leonora Kwok are all furniture hunting and will soon be wives. I am working in National City Bank of N. Y., this summer and plan to go back to Northampton to finish up my work there. Luckily I have been granted an extension of my fellowship.

Betty Jo (Johnson) Wildman's two daughters are Cynthia Lee, age 2, and Sara Kathryn, age six months.

Mary (Kelly) Bryant worked as assistant in biology at the University of Georgia this summer. She is teacher in the Comer, Ga., High School now.

Janet (Kelly) Collins has a daughter, born September 15.

Anna Frances Kenney, who has been teaching in Powder Springs, Ga., for the past year, is now teaching in Graves, Ga. Her mother, Anna Belle (Simpson) Kenney '16, of Shellman, is glad to have her living at home.

Mary (McKay) Stephan has a son, William Fred IV, born October 8. The baby is the grandson of Frances (Peabody) McKay, '25, great-grandson of Mary (Hitch) Peabody, '95 and of Annie (Anderson) McKay, '87, great-great-grandson of the late Fannie (Myers) Hitch, '68. (Frances thinks this may be the first grandchild of a graduate of '25. Do you know of another?)

Anne (McMath) Roy's husband is Diesel Supervisor with the Seaboard Railroad, in charge of the Alabama Division. Anne's wedding reception was quite a Wesleyan affair with Ida Feb Bigbie, Joyce Miller, Dana Bedgood and Barbara Swindle serving.

Ann (McMurray) Massey lives in Bessemer, Ala. She taught in the Birmingham schools last year and this year is completing her education by commuting to the University of Alabama.

Margaret Mitchell is teaching in Pooler and doing some church work.

Jean (Moore) McKay's son, William Maurice, Jr., was born July 12.

Beth (Parker) Hunt's husband and Margaret (Burghard) Johnson, '25, are partners in the insurance business in Cedartown, and Beth teaches in the junior high school and is active in the Methodist church.

Mary Pate is doing graduate work in speech this year at Teachers' College, Columbia University. She has been engaged as a member of the resident company of Rabbit Run Theatre in Madison, Ohio.

Nancy Pickard is working on her Master's degree at the University of Alabama this year.

Mildred (Roads) Griffith of Morganton, N. C., has a daughter, Doren Nottingham, born August 8.

Sue (Settle) Royal of Newnan has a baby daughter.

Ada Jane Tompkins is teaching at the Montverde School, Montverde, Fla., and enjoys it very much.

Elinor (Trunnell) Whipple's husband has a position with the Wyeth Pharmaceutical Company and is stationed in Memphis. They are living at 1619 McLemore St., and Elinor is quite happy in her new home. She has run across several Wesleyan girls, among them "LeeLee" (McPherson) Wall, whose husband has been studying medicine in Memphis and who went to Detroit in September as an interne. LeeLee's father, Dr. N. C. McPherson, former president of Wesleyan, is now pastor of St. John's Church in Memphis.

Billie (Ward) Gaines' husband, Second Lt. Kenneth Lamar Gaines, was wounded in action in Korea and has been sent home to a hospital.

Anne Webber studied during the summer with the Woodstock Artists Association, and had a painting in the exhibition which opened August 5.

Frances (Yingling) Jennings of Americus has a young son. Her husband has recently completed studies at Denver.

1950

"Where, oh where are the grand old Seniors?"

A.B. Graduates

Mary Jane Alderman writes from 215 E. Oak St., Lakeland, Fla.: "I hope all goes well on the Wesleyan campus this year. I'm glad we have three Lakeland girls there this year. I am planning to come for Homecoming this fall."

Joyce Andrew has a position with the Department of Welfare in Columbus, Ga.

Nancy Asher worked in Macon all summer, and now has a position in Atlanta, in the bookstore at Tech.

Nancy Black is teaching at Colegia Buenavista in Marianao, Cuba. She writes: "I am especially thankful for what I received at Wesleyan. When I entered I had no thought of giving full time to mission work in the church, but I only hope I can give to my students the personal and scholastic approach that Mr. Emmett Johnson and Miss Mildred Hudgins so well combined in their classes. Miss Hudgins served on the staff of our training conference in Hartford, Conn., this summer and made an outstanding contribution to our group of 98 missionaries. I have a high school class of Bible with 25 girls of Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish faiths, all deeply interested and eager to learn.

Frances (Bush) Holmes (Mrs. J. P. Holmes, Jr.), is living at 457 Dessau Place, Macon.

Graziella Carlier went back home to Strasbourg, France. We have had no word from her this fall.

Clio Carmichael is teaching in the elementary school in Winter Garden, Fla.

Betty Carthron has a job in the Citizens and Southern Bank in Atlanta.

Mary Cobb is with the Muscogee County Department of Public Welfare, her address: 1402 Second Ave., Columbus, Ga.

Betty Davidson is teaching at East Lake School in Atlanta.

Anne Dodd was on the staff of Camp Merrie-Woode in Sapphire, N. C., during the summer and is now teaching second grade at Gresham School in Macon. Her address is 664 Arlington Place.

Isabella Drew is doing graduate work at the University of Delaware. Her address is: 116 E. Delaware Ave., Newark, Delaware.

Nann Eldridge went to Junaluska for two weeks in the summer, and is now director of religious education at Dalton Methodist Church.

Mary Ruth Fordham is working in the laboratories at Grady Hospital.

Charlotte Gaines has a job with the Bibb County Department of Public Welfare in Macon.

Martha Jane Greer is teaching speech in Panama City, Fla.

Martha Haggard is Mrs. John Frank Clark, and her address Clemson Hotel Apartment, No. 20, Clemson, S. C. Rhea Von Lehe and Martha Ann Wood were among her bridesmaids.

Sue Holden is teaching third grade at West End School in Easley, S. C. She was a counselor at Camp Dixie for Girls during the summer, and at camps in that section were Julie Withers, Anne Dodd, Carol Northcutt, and Jane Wootton.

Myra Jane Holman is doing part time teaching and Girl Scout work in Moultrie. She and Martha Jane Greer went to Jean Link's wedding in June.

Florence Horkan is now Mrs. John A. Cauble, 1765 N. Decatur Rd., Atlanta, Ga.

Jean Link is Mrs. Marvin Rex Rankin, Jr., Cornelian Court Apts., Decatur, Ala.

Jean Logan is Mrs. Ralph E. Russell, Jr., 126 Feld Avenue, Decatur, Ga. In her wedding were Binky Russell, Bess Nunn, Ann Messink, and Rhea von Lehe.

Mary Lena (McCullohs) Barrett, the class was grieved to learn, died tragically on September 8, 1950.

Frances Mahone was married to Sloan Gavin of Macon on September 16. She and her husband are building a house on Ingleside Avenue in Macon.

Margaret Ann Manson is assistant to the Director of Music of the Central Baptist Church in Miami and has her own junior choir with 15 boys and girls singing in it.

Ann Messink is engaged to Richard Travis Ross of Douglas, Ga.

Dorinda Morgan has sent no word of herself.

Bess Nunn and Ann Weaver went on a Brownell Tour to western Canada and down the west coast during the summer. Bess is at home in Perry this year.

Patricia Pope became Mrs. W. R. Chilton, Jr., on July 21, and is living now at Carter's Plaza, Apt. 2, Marietta, Ga. She is teaching fourth grade at the Robert L. Osborne School.

Joe Quillian has been accepted for the March class in the medical school in Memphis, Tenn., a division of the University of Tennessee. In the meantime, she is studying at Vanderbilt.

Carolyn Red is living at home (Lookout Mountain, Tenn.), and is working with an insurance company.

Lois Reynolds is working for Association Films, Inc., at 35 W. 45th Street, New York 19, N. Y., and was living when last we heard at 241 W. 4th St.

Joan Routso is a research technician in Pharmacology Department of Emory University School of Medicine, and writes that she is planning to be married around Christmas to Warren Davidson, brother of Betty Davidson, her Wesleyan roommate.

Jo Ann Russell is working with the editorial division of the Methodist Publishing House in Nashville, and is taking shorthand and art at night school. Her address is Room 510-A, 810 Broadway, Nashville. She spent two weeks at Junaluska this summer and heard Niemoeller and Kagawa.

Peggy Shefelton is teaching sixth and seventh grade history in Ft. Valley, Ga.

Betty Smith is studying at the University of Alabama this year.

Lidia Soto is dean of women at Colegia Buenavista in Cuba. There are 42 board- ing students, and nearly 500 day students.

Emily Jane Tanner has not sent word of herself.

Grace Timms has a position at the Citizens and Southern Bank in Atlanta.

Rhea von Lehe is teaching in Augusta. Ann Weaver is to be married December

1. (See "Weddings.")

Patricia Wing is working on the B.F.A. in ceramics and sculpture at Wesleyan Conservatory to go with her A.B. in history of art. During the summer she attended the summer session of the Art Institute of Chicago.

Martha Ann Wood is at home this year (Rocky Face, Ga.), working with her father, and learning to keep books. She has sene Betty Davidson, Pat (Pope) Chilton, and Marty (Haggard) Clark a good bit this summer.

B.M. and B.F.A. Graduates

Frances (Allison) Morgan is Mrs. G. P. Morgan, 2573 N. Nancelon Circle, Macon, Ga.

Joy Aycock is teaching speech and English in Canton, Ga.

Eva Lowe Baisden spent six weeks working at Spanish-American Institute in Los Angeles in the summer. She is teaching public school music at O'Kefe High School in Atlanta, living at 188 14th St., N. E.

Dana Bedgood is teaching speech and English in Forsyth, Ga., and is director of cheer leaders and majorettes in the school.

Jean Davis is teaching in the Washington public school music at O'Keefe High ton, D. C. schools.

Matilda Dodd is Mrs. F. L. Trawick, 122 Cleveland Ave., Macon. She is, besides a housewife, a Girl Scout leader and Sunday School teacher this year.

Nancy Gaillard is working at Rich's in Atlanta.

Carleen Gaulden is teaching piano in Cairo, Ga.

Jeanne Gellerstedt is to be at home this year. At present she is travelling in Mexico with her family.

Miriam Goodwin is Mrs. Marion Donald Pittard of 100 Argyle St., Rockville, Md. She writes that Don is studying at the hospital there and she is directing the choir at the Baptist Church and teaching.

Allene Hall has been in New York since June 10 trying her luck as a "career girl" and from all we hear, doing very well. too. Her address is Apt. 6-N, 101 W. 72nd St., New York 23.

Berner Heard is director of the Junior High School Band in Macon, Ga.

Newana Hill is at home in Albany and is working at WALB Radio Station and also doing Little Theatre work.

Betty Hobgood is teaching music and planning to stay on a scholarship next semester.

Louise Holloway is working at Davison's in Atlanta.

Jeanne Jarvis is teaching speech and dramatics in Douglas, Ga. Her address is 510 Jackson St.

Helen Johnston is teaching music in Eufaula, Ala.

Ruth Kohnhorst is teacher and band director in Sandersville, Ga., her address: 219 N. Harris St.

Peggy Milton is on the staff of the Macon radio station, WMAZ.

Martha Odum is teacher of public school music in Americus, her address being 210 W. College St.

Mary Pate is studying at Columbia University.

Anndine Richardson has a position at Rich's.

Martha Sheppard is Mrs. Curtis Jordan Tanner, of Sandersville, Ga.

Mary Paul Smith is teaching at the Davison School of Speech in Atlanta, under the direction of Louise (Davis) Davison, 1909.

Barbara Swindle teaches English and speech in Mary Persons High School in Forsyth, and is in charge of counseling the students (laying the foundation for student government). Dana Bedgood is teaching in the same school.

Rosetta Thomas is Mrs. Alex M. Phillips, and is teaching public school music in Ocilla, Ga.

Marion Wang is enrolled at both Columbia and Juilliard this year, and is living at the International House in New York.

Peggy Wells is assistant to a Bridal Consultant at Rich-Schwartz store in Nashville, Tenn.

Ex-1950

Carol (Carlton) Hankins' husband is studying industrial engineering at the University of Florida. They have a small daughter, Carlo Brook.

Barbara (Carpenter) Rabun has a baby daughter, Jeanne, born September 29.

Elinor (Floyd) Van Dyke's husband is studying at Emory. They have a daughter, Helen Holbrook, (to be called "Holly") born August 22.

Jean (Heinz) Rockwell lives in Selma, Alabama.

Harriet Middlebrooks completed her college work at George Pepperdine College in Los Angeles, and is now secretary at the Bagley Mfg. Co., of Long Beach, California.

Rebecca Roddenbery is teaching in Sanford, Fla.

Jean (Tillman) Hensley's husband is operator of a tobacco warehouse in Claxton.

Billie Sue Wilbanks is a fashion buyer for J. D. White Co. in Augusta.

1951

Betty Jo (Beusse) McCool has a son, Dennard Dedrich, born in June.

Martha Hayes is attending the school of nursing at Emory University.

Kathleen (Pape) Hartley has a second daughter, Cynthia, born July 15.

1952

Viola Plant, who is working in New York in a fashion house that bears her cousin's name, Gertrude Davenport, Inc., was at home with her parents for a visit this summer. She is a daughter of Elizabeth (Davenport) Plant, 1917.

1953

Margaret (Altman) Houseworth's husband was called to active duty in the army in September.

ORDER BLANK FOR CHOPIN ALBUMS

by Wesleyan's Professor Joseph Maerz

$10.00 for the fine record album, plus postage from

WESLEYAN COLLEGE, MACON, GA.

Please send me ----- of the Chopin Albums.

Signed:-----

Address-----